Regulatory Analysis Form

The regulation is not mandated by federal or state law, court order, or federal regulation.

(11) Explain the compelling public interest that justifies the regulation. What is the problem it addresses?

The regulation is necessary to set forth the Department's interpretation of section 2 of Act 7-1997, section 204(54) (72 P.S. § 7204(54)).

(12) State the public health, safety, environmental or general welfare risks associated with nonregulation.

There are no public health, safety, environmental or general welfare risks associated with nonregulation.

(13) Describe who will benefit from the regulation. (Quantify the benefits as completely as possible and approximate the number of people who will benefit.)

Taxpayers and tax practitioners will benefit from the Department setting forth its interpretation of 72 P.S. § 7204(54) in a regulation.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(14) Describe who will be adversely affected by the regulation. (Quantify the adverse effects as completely as possible and approximate the number of people who will be adversely affected.)

No parties should be adversely affected by the regulation.

(15) List the persons, groups or entities that will be required to comply with the regulation. (Approximate the number of people who will be required to comply.)

Persons involved in the sale at retail to or use by a producer of commercial motion pictures of any tangible personal property will be required to comply with the regulation. The number of taxpayers who will be required to comply is indeterminable.

(16) Describe the communications with and input from the public in the development and drafting of the regulation. List the persons and/or groups who were involved, if applicable.

The regulation was published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and the public was invited to comment. The Department received two public comments and comments from the Independent Regulatory Review Commission. The Department considered the comments in preparing the final form regulation. In addition, a copy of the regulation was forwarded to the Pennsylvania Bar Association; the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry and the Department of Community and Economic Development. The regulation was listed in the Department's Agenda of Regulations published at 28 Pa.B. 3127 (July 4, 1998) and was forwarded to interested parties upon request.

(17) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the regulated community associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required.

Compliance with the regulation could result in a savings to the regulated community by reducing the possibility of assessment of penalty and interest. No legal, accounting or consulting procedures are required by the regulation.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(18) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to local governments associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required.

This regulation does not increase costs or savings to local governments. No legal, accounting or consultant procedures are required by the regulation.

(19) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to state government associated with the implementation of the regulation, including any legal, accounting, or consulting procedures which may be required.

This regulation does not increase costs or savings to state government. No legal, accounting or consultant procedures are required by the regulation.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(20) In the table below, provide an estimate of the fiscal savings and costs associated with implementation and compliance for the regulated community, local government, and state government for the current year and five subsequent years.

(20b) Provide the past three year expenditure history for programs affected by the regulation.

Program	FY -3	FY -2	FY -1	Current FY
N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

(21) Using the cost-benefit information provided above, explain how the benefits of the regulation outweigh the adverse effects and costs.

The regulation creates no costs or benefits. Rather, it sets forth the Department's interpretation of statutory changes made by Act 7 of 1997 with respect to taxation of commercial motion picture production activities. The expenditure for the exclusion provided by Act 7 is estimated to be $0.8 million for fiscal year 1998-99.

(22) Describe the nonregulatory alternatives considered and the costs associated with those alternatives. Provide the reasons for their dismissal.

The Department exercised its nonregulatory alternative with the use of a pronouncement to set forth its interpretation of 72 P.S. § 7204(54) in addition to promulgating a proposed rulemaking. The pronouncement will provide guidance to taxpayers pending the final adoption of the regulation.

(23) Describe alternative regulatory schemes considered and the costs associated with those schemes. Provide the reasons for their dismissal.

See response in (22) above.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(24) Are there any provisions that are more stringent than federal standards? If yes, identify the specific provisions and the compelling Pennsylvania interest that demands stronger regulation.

This regulation relates to the imposition of sales and use tax, there currently is no comparative Federal tax.

(25) How does this regulation compare with those of other states? Will the regulation put Pennsylvania at a competitive disadvantage with other states?

This regulation will not put Pennsylvania at a competitive disadvantage with other states. New York, New Jersey and West Virginia provide an exemption for property directly used in motion picture production. Ohio does not have a motion picture exemption. Pennsylvania's exclusion is equal to or more generous than the exemption in New York, New Jersey and West Virginia because Pennsylvania grants an exclusion for motor vehicles which includes not only special cars with cameras, but also rental cars and trucks used to transport cast, crew and props to shooting locations.

(26) Will the regulation affect existing or proposed regulations of the promulgating agency or other state agencies? If yes, explain and provide specific citations.

This regulation does not affect any other existing or proposed regulations of the Department or any other state agencies. Reference to the Department of Community and Economic Development's regulation, which prescribes that producers of motion pictures who are qualified to take advantage of section 204(54) of the TRC shall use a Pennsylvania Exemption Certificate (Form REV-1220), has been added to § 32.38(f).

(27) Will any public hearings or informational meetings be scheduled? Please provide the dates, times, and locations, if available.

The regulation was presented to the House and Senate Finance Committees and the Independent Regulatory Review Commission. At the same time the regulation was presented to the Committees and the Commission, the regulation was published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin and the public was invited to comment.

The Committees and the Commission may hold hearings or meetings to consider the final form regulation. The date, time and location of such hearings or meetings can be ascertained by contacting the Committees and Commission. Notice of the Commission's public meeting to formally consider the final form regulation will be published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin prior to the meeting date.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(28) Will the regulation change existing reporting, record keeping, or other paperwork requirements? Describe the changes and attach copies of forms or reports which will be required as a result of implementation, if available.

This regulation does not change existing reporting, record keeping, or other paperwork requirements.

(29) Please list any special provisions which have been developed to meet the particular needs of affected groups or persons including, but not limited to, minorities, elderly, small businesses, and farmers.

No special groups are affected by the regulation.

(30) What is the anticipated effective date of the regulation; the date by which compliance with the regulation will be required; and the date by which any required permits, licenses or other approvals must be obtained?

This regulation will be effective upon final publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Compliance with the regulation is required upon publication. There are no permits, licenses or other approvals required by this regulation.

(31) Provide the schedule for continual review of the regulation.

This regulation is scheduled for review within five years of final publication. No sunset date has been assigned.

NOTICE OF FINAL RULEMAKING

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

61 Pa. Code §§ 32.38 and 60.22

Sales and Use Tax

Commercial Motion Pictures

PREAMBLE

The Department of Revenue (Department), under authority contained in section 270 of the Tax Reform Code of 1971 (TRC) (72 P.S. § 7270), by this order amends 61 Pa. Code, Chapter 32. Exemptions, by adding section 32.38, (relating to commercial motion pictures) and amends Chapter 60. Sales and Use Tax Pronouncements - Statements of Policy, by deleting section 60.22 (relating to commercial motion pictures) as set forth in Annex A.

Purpose of Regulation

The Department is setting forth its interpretation of section 2 of Act 7-1997, section 204(54) (72 P.S. § 7204(54)) regarding the sales and use tax exemption for the sale at retail to or use by a producer of commercial motion pictures of any tangible personal property directly used in the production of a feature-length commercial motion picture distributed to a national audience.

Explanation of Regulatory Requirements

Subsection (a) sets forth the definition of various terms for use in § 32.38. Subsection (b) details the scope of the exemption. To effect legislative intent, the Department has added language at § 32.38(b)(1)(ii). If this subparagraph were not added, the purchase of the tangible personal property would be exempt but the repair or alteration would be subject to tax. For example, the purchase of film would be exempt but the development charges would be subject to tax which clearly is not the legislative intent. Subsection (c) describes the treatment of property and services purchased for resale. Subsection (d) provides that charges to install, repair, maintain or service equipment, parts, tools and supplies directly used in the production of a commercial motion picture are exempt from tax. Subsection (e) explains that utilities used directly and exclusively in the production of a commercial motion picture are exempt from tax. Examples of taxable and exempt electricity usage are provided. An explanation regarding the use of exemption certificates is set forth in subsection (f).

With the adoption of § 32.38, the pronouncement set forth at § 60.22 is no longer necessary and is therefore being deleted.

72 P.S. § 7204(54) requires that the purchaser furnish to the vendor a certificate substantially in the form as the Department of Community and Economic Development may prescribe by regulation. In compliance with this provision, the Department of Community and Economic Development proposed a rulemaking relating to the exemption certificate form at 28 Pa.B. 1530 (March 28, 1998). 12 Pa. Code § 33.1 (relating to form required) provides that producers of motion pictures, who are qualified to take advantage of section 204(54) of the TRC, shall use a Pennsylvania Exemption Certificate (Form REV-1220).

Affected Parties

Producers of motion pictures who qualify to take advantage of section 204(54) of the TRC (72 P.S. § 7204(54)) may be affected by the regulation.

Comment and Response Summary

Notice of proposed rulemaking was published at 28 Pa.B. 1320 (March 14, 1998). This proposal is being adopted with changes as set forth in Annex A.

The Department received two comments from the public during the public comment period. The Department also received comments from the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC). No comments were received from the House Finance Committee or the Senate Finance Committee.

The amendments to the proposed rulemaking in response to comments are as follows:

(1) IRRC's first comment relates to the inconsistent use of the terms "exemption" and "exclusion" in § 32.38. The problem relating to the use of these two terms originates with the statutory provision. The title of section 204 of the TRC is exclusions from tax; however, within paragraph (54) the term "exempt" is used. In its comments, IRRC concluded that because paragraph (54) references the term exempt, that references to "exclusion" in the regulation should be amended to "exemption." The Department also received a public comment with regard to the use of the two terms in the proposal. Contrary to IRRC, the public comment suggests that the Department use the term "exclusion" throughout the regulation instead of "exemption." The Department agrees with IRRC and the public comment that for consistency, the regulation should use only one term. The Department agrees with the revision suggested by IRRC, and has amended § 32.38(b)(2) and (b)(3) as well as the title of subsection (b) to reference the term exemption.

(2) IRRC's second area of concern relates to subsection (b) which details the scope of the exemption. IRRC suggests that the subsection does not describe the extent of the scope of the regulation and that the text should be amended and reorganized. In response to the concerns raised by IRRC, the Department has amended § 32.38(b) by removing proposed paragraph (2) from § 32.38(b) and creating a definition for the term "production of a commercial motion picture." With the deletion of paragraph (2), the remaining paragraphs were renumbered accordingly. In addition, the name of subsection (b) has been changed from scope to scope of the exemption. Section 32.38(b)(1) has been amended to more clearly set forth the general scope of the regulation. Finally, in accordance with IRRC's suggestion, the Department has added the phrase "of a commercial motion picture" to § 32.38(b)(2) (proposed § 32.38(b)(3)).

(3) Because section 204(54) of the TRC specifically provides that the purchaser shall furnish to the vendor a certificate substantially in the form as the Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED) may prescribe by regulation, IRRC and a public comment both suggested that the Department make specific reference to the DCED regulation that prescribes the form. The Department agrees with the comment and has amended § 32.38(f)(1) accordingly.

For clarity, the Department edited and reorganized the provisions of subsection (f) relating to exemption certificates.

The Department has also amended a style change to the term "national" which was made by the Pennsylvania Bulletin when it published the proposed rulemaking. The Bulletin changed the term from all lower case letters, to an initial capital "National." The Department has amended all references to the term to all lower case letters for two reasons. First, the enabling statute uses all lower case letters. Second, by using an initial capital, the term would be restricting the phrase "National audience" to just the United States and it is the Department's opinion that the term should apply to audiences both within and outside the United States.

Comments that did not result in amendments to the regulation are as follows:

(1) Subsection (e) under § 32.38 relates to utilities used in production. The subsection provides examples of taxable and exempt electricity usage. IRRC suggests that the Department group examples of usage exempt from tax in one subsection and usage subject to tax in a second subsection. Since there are only three examples involved, the Department does not believe separate subsections are necessary.

(2) As one of its comments to § 32.38(b), IRRC suggested that the subsection be entitled "application" instead of "scope." Scope is a customary word utilized in many of the Department's regulations, whereas application is not used. The Department does not see the merit in introducing a new term in this regulation; however, as mentioned above, the title of the subsection has been expanded to state "scope of the exemption."

Fiscal Impact

The Department has determined that the amendments will have no significant impact on the Commonwealth. The Department has determined that the expenditure for the exclusion provided by Act 7-1997 is estimated to be $0.8 million for fiscal year 1997-98.

Paperwork

The amendments will require no additional paperwork for the public or the Commonwealth.

Effectiveness/Sunset Date

The amendments will become effective upon final publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. The regulation is scheduled for review within five years of final publication. No sunset date has been assigned.

Contact Person

The contact person for an explanation of the amendments is Anita M. Doucette, Office of Chief Counsel, PA Department of Revenue, Dept. 281061, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17128-1061.

Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5(a)), on March 2, 1998, the Department submitted a copy of the notice of proposed rulemaking, published at 28 Pa.B. 1320, to IRRC and the Chairpersons of the House Committee on Finance and the Senate Committee on Finance for review and comment. In compliance with section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5(c)), the Department also provided IRRC and the Committees with copies of all comments received, as well as other documentation.

In preparing these final-form regulations, the Department has considered the comments received from IRRC, the Committees and the public.

These final-form regulations were (deemed) approved by the Committees on _____ and were (deemed) approved by IRRC on _____, in accordance with section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745a(e)).

Findings

The Department finds that:

(1) Public notice of intention to amend the regulations has been duly given under sections 201 and 202 of the act of July 31, 1968 (P.L. 769, No. 240) (45 P.S. §§ 1201 and 1202) and the regulations thereunder, 1 Pa. Code §§ 7.1 and 7.2.

(2) The amendments are necessary and appropriate for the administration and enforcement of the authorizing statute.

Order

The Department, acting under the authorizing statute, orders that:

(a) The regulations of the Department, 61 Pa. Code, are amended by adding section 32.38 and deleting section 60.22 to read as set forth in Annex A.

(b) The Secretary of the Department shall submit this order and Annex A to the Office of General Counsel and the Office of Attorney General for approval as to form and legality as required by law.

(c) The Secretary of the Department shall certify this order and Annex A and deposit them with the Legislative Reference Bureau as required by law.

(d) This order shall take effect upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.
