 Yes: By the Attorney General
 Yes: By the Governor

(8) Briefly explain the regulation in clear and nontechnical language.

The purpose of this rulemaking is to amend Chapter 125 of Title 31 of the Pennsylvania Code in order to make it consistent with the Act of December 21, 1995 (P.L. 714, No. 79) ("Act 79"). This regulation, adopted in 1968, identified and defined prohibited rebating and inducement activities associated with title insurance transactions.

(9) State the statutory authority for the regulation and any relevant state or federal court decisions.

The Department has determined that section 125.1(b) and sections 125.5-125.9 should be removed from the regulation as they are without statutory basis or redundant and unnecessary.

Section 125.1(b) is being deleted as the controlling law; section 730 of the Insurance Company Law (40 P.S. §910-30), was repealed in 1995. Section 10 of Act 79, further amended section 731 of the Insurance Company Law (40 P.S. § 910-31) having to do with "Commissions; Other Considerations Prohibited." Act 79 specifically identifies and defines activities which constitute per se unlawful inducements. Sections 125.5 -125.9 in no manner enhance the prohibitions already delineated in section 10 of Act 79, and are, therefore, found to be redundant.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(10) Is the regulation mandated by any federal or state law or court order, or federal regulation? If yes, cite the specific law, case or regulation, and any deadlines for action.

No.

(11) Explain the compelling public interest that justifies the regulation. What is the problem it addresses?

The Insurance Department seeks to amend Chapter 125, §§125.1-125.9 to be consistent with the authorizing statute. Moreover, it is in the public interest to delete redundant and confusing regulatory requirements.

(12) State the public health, safety, environmental or general welfare risks associated with nonregulation.

There are no public health, safety, environment or general welfare risks associated with this rulemaking.

(13) Describe who will benefit from the regulation. (Quantify the benefits as completely as possible and approximate the number of people who will benefit.)

The title insurance industry along with the general public will benefit from the regulation to the extent that it will be consistent with the statute.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(14) Describe who will be adversely affected by the regulation. (Quantify the adverse effects as completely as possible and approximate the number of people who will be adversely affected.)

There will be no adverse effects on any party as a result of the amendment of this regulation.

(15) List the persons, groups or entities that will be required to comply with the regulation. (Approximate the number of people who will be required to comply.)

The regulation applies to all title insurers, agents and approved attorneys licensed to do title insurance business in the Commonwealth.

(16) Describe the communications with and input from the public in the development and drafting of the regulation. List the persons and/or groups who were involved, if applicable.

Comments regarding the amendment of this regulation were solicited from the various trade associations representing the insurance industry. The Pennsylvania Land Title Association agreed that the chapter should be amended as recommended. The Insurance Federation of Pennsylvania, Inc. endorsed the regulation as recommended.

(17) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the regulated community associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required.

The amendment of the regulation will not have any impact on costs associated with licensed title insurers, agents and approved attorneys who do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(18) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to local governments associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required.

There are no costs or savings to local governments associated with this rulemaking.

(19) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to state government associated with the implementation of the regulation, including any legal, accounting, or consulting procedures which may be required.

There are no costs or savings associated to state government associated with this rulemaking.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(20) In the table below, provide an estimate of the fiscal savings and costs associated with implementation and compliance for the regulated community, local government, and state government for the current year and five subsequent years. N/A

| | Current FY Year | FY +1 Year | FY +2 Year | FY +3 Year | FY +4 Year | FY +5 Year |

| | | | | |
| | | | | |

(21) Using the cost-benefit information provided above, explain how the benefits of the regulation outweigh the adverse effects and costs.

No costs or adverse effects are anticipated as a result of this regulation.

(22) Describe the nonregulatory alternatives considered and the costs associated with those alternatives. Provide the reasons for their dismissal.

Amending Chapter 125, §§125.1-125.9 is the most efficient method to achieve consistency with the authorizing statute. No other alternatives were considered.

(23) Describe alternative regulatory schemes considered and the costs associated with those schemes. Provide the reasons for their dismissal.

No other regulatory schemes were considered. The amendment of the regulation is the most efficient method of updating the regulatory requirements.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(24) Are there any provisions that are more stringent than federal standards? If yes, identify the specific provisions and the compelling Pennsylvania interest that demands stronger regulation.

No.

(25) How does this regulation compare with those of other states? Will the regulation put Pennsylvania at a competitive disadvantage with other states?

The rulemaking will not put Pennsylvania at a competitive disadvantage with other states. It merely provides for consistency with the statute.

(26) Will the regulation affect existing or proposed regulations of the promulgating agency or other state agencies? If yes, explain and provide specific citations.

No.

(27) Will any public hearings or informational meetings be scheduled? Please provide the dates, times, and locations, if available.

No public hearings or informational meetings are anticipated.

Regulatory Analysis Form

(28) Will the regulation change existing reporting, record keeping, or other paperwork requirements? Describe the changes and attach copies of forms or reports which will be required as a result of implementation, if available.

The amendment of the regulation imposes no additional paperwork requirements on the Department, licensed title insurers, agents, approved attorneys or the general public.

(29) Please list any special provisions which have been developed to meet the particular needs of affected groups or persons including, but not limited to, minorities, elderly, small businesses, and farmers.

The rulemaking will have no effect on special needs of affected parties.

(30) What is the anticipated effective date of the regulation; the date by which compliance with the regulation will be required; and the date by which any required permits, licenses or other approvals must be obtained?

The rulemaking will take effect upon approval of the final form regulation by the legislative standing committees, the Office of the Attorney General and the Independent Regulatory Review Commission and upon final publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

(31) Provide the schedule for continual review of the regulation.

The Department reviews each of its regulations for continued effectiveness on a triennial basis.

Notice of Final Rulemaking

Insurance Department

31 Pa. Code, Chapter 125
§§125.1-125.9

Title Insurance Rebates

PREAMBLE

The Insurance Department ("Department") hereby amends Title 31, Pennsylvania Code, Chapter 125, §§125.1-125.9, Title Insurance Rebates, as set forth in Annex A.

The rulemaking amends Chapter 125 of Title 31 of the Pennsylvania Code in order to make it consistent with the Act of December 21, 1995 (P.L. 714, No. 79) ("Act 79"). This regulation, originally adopted in 1968, identified and defined prohibited rebating and inducement activities associated with title insurance transactions.

Statutory Authority

This regulation is amend under the authority of sections 206, 506, 1501 and 1502 of the Administrative Code of 1929 (71 P.S. §§66, 186, 411 and 412), sections 701(4) and 731 of the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 682, No. 284, (40 P.S. §§ 910-1(4) and 910-31) and sections 635 and 636 of the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 789. No. 285, (40 P.S. §§ 275 and 276).

Comments

Notice of the proposed rulemaking was published at 28 Pa.B. 38 (September 26, 1998) with a 30-day public comment period.

No comments were received from the standing committees or the Independent Regulatory Review Commissioner. Comments regarding the amendment of this regulation were received during the 30-day comment period from the Insurance Federation of Pennsylvania, Inc. (IFP). IFP endorsed the amendment as recommended.

The Department in preparing this final form rulemaking noted that the reference in section 125.4 to cash commissions should have been removed due to the previous deletion of section 125.1(b). An editorial change has been made to correct the oversight.

Fiscal Impact

There is no fiscal impact as a result of the amendment to this regulation.

Paperwork

The amendment of this regulation will affect all licensed title insurers, agents and approved attorneys in the Commonwealth.

Persons Regulated

The regulation applies to all title insurance companies licensed by the Commissioner to transact business in this Commonwealth.

Regulatory Review

Under section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act, (71 P.S. §745.5(a)), the agency submitted a copy of this regulation on September 14, 1998 to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission and to the Chairmen of the House Insurance Committee and the Senate Banking and Insurance Committee. In addition to the submitted regulation, the agency has provided the Commission and the Committees with a copy of a detailed Regulatory Analysis Form prepared by the agency in compliance with Executive Order 1996-1, "Regulatory Review and Promulgation." A copy of that material is available to the public upon request.

In preparing this final form regulation, the Department considered all comments received from IRRC, the Committees and the public. This final form regulation was (deemed) approved by the House and Senate Committees on _____. In accordance with section 5a(d) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. §745.5a(d)), IRRC met on _____ and (deemed) approved the regulation in accordance with section 5a(e) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. §745.5a(e)).

Findings

The Commissioner finds that:

- (1) Public notice of intention to adopt this rulemaking as amended by this order has been given under sections 201 and 202 of the act of July 31, 1968 (P.L. 769, No240) (45 P.S. §§1201 and 1202) and the regulations thereunder, 1 Pa. Code §§7.1 and 7.2.
- (2) The adoption of this rulemaking in the manner provided in this order is necessary and appropriate for the administration and enforcement of the authorizing statutes.

Order

The Commissioner, acting under the authorizing statutes, orders that:

- (a) The regulations of the Department, 31 Pa. Code, are amended by adopting §§125.1-125.9, to read as set forth in Annex A.
- (b) The Commissioner shall submit this order and Annex A to the Office of General Counsel and Office of Attorney General for approval as to form and legality as required by law.
- (c) The Commissioner shall certify this order and Annex A and deposit them with the Legislative Reference Bureau as required by law.

(d) The regulation adopted by this order shall take effect upon final publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Re: Insurance Department Final
Form Regulation No. 11-175,
Title Insurance Rebates

Dear Mr. Nyce:

Pursuant to Section 5a(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, enclosed for your review and approval is final form regulation 31 Pa. Code, Chapter 125, Title Insurance Rebates.

This final form rulemaking amends Chapter 125 in order to make it consistent with the Act of December 21, 1995 (P.L. 714, No. 79) ("Act 79"). This regulation, originally adopted in 1968, identified and defined prohibited rebating and inducement activities associated with title insurance transactions. The provisions of Title Insurance are better contained within Act 79 and, therefore, those provisions in the regulation are no longer necessary.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact me at (717) 787-4429.

Sincerely yours,
