Dear Chairman McGinley:

The Professional Licensure Committee held a meeting on October 19, 2004, to consider the following:

Regulation 16A-6314 - Final rulemaking of the State Board of Psychology relating to notice requirements. The committee voted to approve the regulation.

Regulation 16A-5313 - Final rulemaking of the State Board of Osteopathic Medicine relating to continuing medical education. Since the board withdrew the regulation, the committee "went over" the regulation.

Regulation 16A-5715 - Final rulemaking of the State Board of Veterinary Medicine relating to implanting electronic identification. The committee voted to approve the regulation.

Regulation 16A-5117 - Final rulemaking of the State Board of Nursing relating to continuing education for certified registered nurse practitioners. The committee voted to approve the regulation.

Regulation 16A-604 - Final rulemaking of the State Board of Vehicle Manufacturers, Dealers and Salespersons relating to display. The committee voted to approve the regulation.

Regulation 16A-5312 - Final rulemaking of the State Board of Osteopathic Medicine relating to delegation of medical services. The committee voted to approve the regulation.

Regulation 16A-561 - Final rulemaking of the State Real Estate Commission relating to education. The committee voted to approve the regulation.
