Dear Ms. Bender,

Please help those unfortunate dogs that are subject to deorable living conditions at the hands of puppy mill owners.

I am hopeful that dogs shall no longer be imprisoned in cages that are too small for them, and I do think that just doubling the size of their cage is not enough. Dogs should be given at least 2 hours of exercise a day- not 20 minutes. They should not be in the cages when the cages are being cleaned. There should be stringent limits as to how often the dogs are bred. And, of course, we need many more dog wardens to enforce these laws.

Dogs are gentle, loving creatures who help people in so many ways, and need attention and affection.

Sincerely,

Marie Hibshman
