Dear Ms Bender,

After reading the proposed new laws I am shocked. How can this state think these laws will help animals? By doing this you are promoting the "puppy mill" type of breeder. What about those who truly care about raising happy, healthy, well socialized animals?

What about rescue people? Those who open thier homes to take in unwanted animals? These people open thier hearts to help animals in need. They use thier own funds to help put these animals into loving homes.

Dog shows and other American Kennel Club events put millions of dollars into communities where they are held. Business owners who can't afford to loose business will be hurt by this as well. Not to mention the sales tax that the state will lose from the loss of these events.

As a resident of PA I oppose this proposed new law! Enforce the existing laws if you want to help the animals.
