To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in support of new, more humane regulations for Pennsylvania puppy mills. I am a resident local to the "puppy mill capital of the East," and am saddened and disgusted by the conditions that currently exist within these mills. I understand that the proposed regulations, if approved, will allow dogs more space, better protection from the elements, and more time outside of their cages for exercise and play. Anything other than approval of these regulations is inexcusable. I encourage you to offer your support. Thank you for your time and compassion.

Sincerely,

Molly Keller
