Dear Ms. Bender,

I am writing to state my position on the new laws being drawn up in Harrisburg regarding the changes to the Dog Law.

I was told by my friend to write with any comments I might have. After reading the information I looked up on the AKC website I must firmly state that I feel that the old laws should absolutely be better enforced and doing that just might solve many of the existing problems that the Governor claims need fixing.

Maybe there is some room for stricter laws on the large puppy mills, plus I am very much against puppies and kittens being sold in pet stores, but that's all the changes that need to be made until it is proven that new laws are actually needed.

Sincerely,

Debra Turner
