INDEPENDENT REGULATORY REVIEW COMMISSION

Arthur Coccodrilli,
Chairman of the Independent Regulatory Review Committee (IRRC):

Mr Coccodrilli,

Volunteering for a rescue I am very concerned that a foster home will need a kennel license and to follow the new regs. Obviously to put down stones or cement when they are in a home, in a fence yd and part of a family...it would make no sense to take a step backwards. I sincerely hope that you would consider some representation from the non-profit rescues and shelters. It seems the many of the reps are friends of puppy millers or from the last board which the governor disbanded due to their lack of help.

Thank you,
Jackie Williams
