Dear Dr. Fasano,

I am writing in support of changing the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Board of Medicine's current regulations on prescriptive privileges of Physician Assistants. As a PA student in Pennsylvania I feel that all Physician Assistants should have prescriptive rights, regardless of whether they are practicing under a D.O. or an M.D. Allopathic and Osteopathic regulations on PA prescribing rights should be made equal.

I feel that these changes would be an incentive for students, myself included, to practice in Pennsylvania upon graduating.

Sincerely,

Kerry E. Saline
