Dear Dr. Fasano:

Hello, my name is Arthur Lindsay and I am a clinical year physician assistant student from Saint Francis University in Loretto. I write to you in support of the proposition of Osteopathic prescribing regulations for physician assistants. I find it somewhat distressing that as I approach the date in which I will become certified, I will not be able to completely care for a patient when practicing under a doctor of osteopathic due to current prescribing regulations. However, the new osteopathic prescribing regulations will all physician assistants to create a more efficient work place, improve patient care/satisfaction, limit waiting room time and improve over all health of patients. Please take serious consideration of these new regulations and the improvements that could be made if they are put in place.

Sincerely,

Arthur J. Lindsay, PA-S
