Dear Dr. Fasano:

I am a physician assistant who has been practicing for nearly thirty years. I am writing to request that you support the bill allowing osteopathic physicians to delegate prescription writing to physician assistants.

As you know, allopathic physicians have been supervising PA's for years, and osteopathic physicians should have the same authority. Also, the PA training is no different if the PA is trained by a D.O. or M.D.

I suggest to avoid confusion, the regulations should be worded the same as those for allopathic physicians.

Sincerely,

William G. Brown, PA-C
