^^

I'm not opposed to the idling ban in general, but I am opposed to taking away the exemption in 2010. Is 40 degrees not as cold in 2010? 75 not as hot? Will the state offices operate their work places under the same stipulations? If so, how long before our homes get forced into the same standards?

^^

Please contact me if you have any questions.
Sincerely,
