Re: Final Rulemaking 16-47 (schedule of civil penalties – funeral)

Dear Ms. Totino:

As discussed in our exchange of telephone messages June 30, I am writing to confirm a typographical error in the transmittal sheet for the referenced final rulemaking.

On June 25, 2010, we delivered the referenced final rulemaking of the Commissioner of Professional and Occupational Affairs. The transmittal sheet indicates that the rulemaking is to be delivered to the House Committee on State Government and the Senate Committee on State Government. These are typographical errors. The rulemaking was supposed to be and was in fact delivered to the House Professional Licensure Committee (Michael P. McGeehan, chair) and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee (Robert M. Tomlinson, chair). The names of the committee chairs are correct on the transmittal sheet.

At the same time, we also delivered companion final rulemaking 16A-4818 (continuing education enforcement) of the State Board of Funeral Directors. You will note that the transmittal sheet for this rulemaking properly identifies the House Professional Licensure Committee (Michael P. McGeehan, chair) and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee (Robert M. Tomlinson, chair). The identical representatives of those respective committees signed acknowledgement of receipt for both final rulemakings.

If you have any other questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Blackburn
Regulatory Unit counsel
