Subject: What a disgrace!

Ed Rendell ... you are such a disappointment as governor. Tauting how much you "love" your dogs, and yet completely back-peddling on the one chance you have to give puppy mill dogs a less horrific existence. You and your staff CLEARLY have no integrity. You blatantly lie to your constituents, and I can't think of one nice thing to say about you and your staff right now. You care more about casinos and the filth that frequent those places than you do about innocent animals.

Jessie Smith ... Why do you find it so necessary to side with, defend, and protect the rights of animal abusers? It would be so refreshing if someone in your government position would do what is morally and ethically the right thing to do. The people of Pennsylvania don't want any more bs about why wire floors are actually beneficial to the poor confined mother and her babies. It's a crock of bull and you know it.

Sue West ... Does the responsibility of the Director of Dog Law position include making dogs suffer? Suffer every day, cruel punishment for the sake of money? Sue West ... you should be ashamed of yourself. You are certainly no advocate for dogs, and a disgrace to the people of Pennsylvania who employ you.

You all have a responsibility to make this right! A bill was passed, and now you are continuing the suffering of these poor animals.

Please stop the support of the puppy mills, and let's get rid of Pennsylvania's dubious distinction of being the Puppy Mill Capital of the East.
