Subject: No wire flooring in dog kennels

Message:

The Department of Agriculture has issued new regulations for commercial kennels which contain a loophole under which birthing and nursing mothers may be kept in enclosures which have 50% wire flooring. Pennsylvania's new Dog Law clearly states that dogs over 12 weeks of age are NOT to be kept on wire flooring. Please enforce the new laws as they are written -- WITHOUT any loopholes. We've come so far -- please -- let's not backpedal now. Thank you for your attention to this matter. Susanne Lewis
