I can't believe that after you people are trying to circumvent new animal protection laws given all the bad publicity and flak you got for being one of the worst states in the country with regard to animal protection.

You need to start enforcing the laws - DILIGENTLY.

I don't want any of your canned, ignorant responses either.

1. Puppies will not get stuck outside
2. Putting adults on wire so they can be with their pups is BS. Put them all on solid flooring
3. It's not more sanitary - cleaning EVERY DAY is
4. Whelping boxes do NOT satisfy the solid flooring requirement. Under our new dog laws (Act 119), solid floors are REQUIRED for the ENTIRE surface of the floor in the dogs' cages.

Do your jobs and enforce the laws.

I no longer use language that accepts the current concept of animals as property, commodities and/or things. Rather than refer to myself and others as "owners" of animals, I now refer to myself and others as "guardians" of our animal companions and to animals as "he" or "she" rather than "it". I urge you to do the same.
