Hello,

I would like to comment on the CHB regulations

I have saved many animals over the years that I have been a "rescuer".

I have seen first hand the damage done to dogs forced to live on wire flooring

Advocates have fought long and hard for these new laws that would allow these innocent animals to suffer a little less while they live in sub standard conditions in commercial breeding facilities!

The laws cannot and should not be changed. It is illegal to do so and the dogs in PA have suffered long enough!
