Subject: my opinion

Dear Pennsylvania Canine Health Board,

I am writing to voice my support for the CHB's recommended regulations. The dogs that are trapped in these large scale breeding kennels have no one to speak for them and people that choose to run these kinds of facilities need to have tougher regulations.

I am the proud owner of three "puppy mill rescue dogs" and knowing what the mother had to endure for six years of her life breaks my heart. She is the most loving dog I have ever owned but to know that she was trapped in a rabbit cage for the first six years of her life is just a tragedy. The pieces of her ears that are missing remind me constantly of her former life.

I encourage these regulations to be put in place immediately to give them a better quality of life that these poor creatures deserve.

Sincerely,
Lisa Campbell
