JAN - 4 REC'D

INDEPENDENT REGULATORY REVIEW COMMISSION

Please be advised that my husband and I are in agreement that the wood burner issue might need some careful adjustments. We can see that perhaps some regulations are necessary but the ones that were written are entirely too restricting.

With the economy as it is there are many families in Pennsylvania who need the financial assistance that burning wood to heat their homes provides.

As you consider the issue in the next few days, please reevaluate the current proposals and make adjustments that will ease the burden on our Pennsylvania families.

George and Donna Lee Alter, Cochranon, Pa.
