INDEPENDENT REGULATORY REVIEW COMMISSION

Sirs;

Why don't you officials do something worthwhile instead of making life more expensive for everyday citizens and business, we are sick of government meddling into everything we do. We are taxed to death and you ruin business prospects of ever coming to Pa. and the ones here want to get out because of restrictions and high taxes. I will vote for any new person running for office to get any and most all of you out of office except for Jeff Pyle he is one of the very few that knows what his district needs and wants.
