INDEPENDENT REGULATORY COMMISSION

We do not need the state government imposing more regulations on us from "on high". Many of us use wood for heat to be able to keep our homes at a reasonable temperature throughout the heating season since other fuels are cost prohibitive. In addition to saving us money, it also saves on other non-renewable resources. It is time to get off the backs of the citizenry and stop making ridiculous laws and regulations that only hurt us in the long run. DEP needs to be stopped from its effort to rule every aspect of our lives.

Sincerely,
Lawrence E. West
