

42802

Tate, Michele

From: Bob & Lou Ann Gehman [bobgehman@dejazzd.com]
Sent: Monday, October 26, 2009 9:17 PM
To: EP, RegComments
Subject: exceptions for property line rules

Please consider exceptions to the property line set back rule. For example if a home property line is adjacent to a limited access highway and the grade makes it impossible for smoke it interfere with anyone why make the set back 75 feet? Or another example would be a property that is adjoining swampland or rocky hill land why call for a 75 set back rule?

PLANNING DIVISION

OCT 26 4 05 PM '09

RECEIVED

note,
I believe this individual also submitted comments previously, so you don't need to assign a new commentator number.

slx.