Subject: Outdoor Wood-fired Boilers

INDEPENDENT REGULATORY REVIEW COMMISSION

We do not need state laws imposed on those citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania who chose to use wood-fired boilers to heat their homes with. There are local regulations in effect on an as-needed basis. This is sufficient.

We do not need more fees, fines or taxes because of yet another law. We pay enough already!

"If a company is going to profit from Christmas, then they should advertise Christmas sales and Christmas products and not be generic, not be politically correct in using the word 'holiday'. People shop for Christmas presents -- they don't shop for holiday presents." Randy Sharp
