I am writing this letter to ask, when did we become a socialist government, where we have someone directing our every move?

I served in our military for 22 years, to protect the freedoms that our ancestors fought for, and now you are slowly sending us back to the pre revolution days.

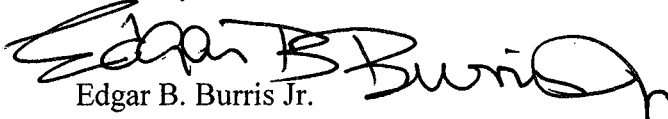

Enough is enough, I use an outside wood boiler for my heat, as does my closest neighbor. I live in a very rural area and I don't need you to tell my how to heat my house.

The next thing will be the use of fireplaces or kerosene heaters.

I think our forefathers are rolling in there graves to see the direction that our county is going.

I think the DEP and the EQB already have more than enough regulations, dictating our way of life, maybe when someone comes to your house, and tells you your way of life, is no longer acceptable, you will realize only to late what you have done to this great county. So please stop the insanity, and start with leaving the wood boilers alone.

Sincerely,

Edgar B. Burris Jr.
