

2806

Andrew Marx
Philadelphia, PA 19146

Dear Pennsylvania Environmental Quality Board,

If companies are going to drill for gas to keep our state moving, great. But if they get to reap the monetary rewards of doing so, make sure they understand the risk they also face if they mess it up.

If they can't be counted on to clean up after themselves, they aren't good stewards of our state's resources and don't deserve the right to drill.

Best luck,