Subject: Prposed Regulation changes for day cares

I am writing in regards to the proposed day care regulations I received from my licensing rep. I have been running a group day care home for over eleven years now and do not have a problem with the regulation changes. The only problem I do have is with the Keystone STARS PDR record keeping process. The current forms are a headache and very confusing to use. In my opinion they are also very unecessary. Please consider simplifying the forms if this is going to become a licensing requirement. I have actually considered discontinuing my Keystone STARS membership as I find the paperwork to be overwhelming for someone who already spends more than 40 hours a week working. They need to keep in mind that home providers actually spend their time working with the children and not sitting in an office like center directors.

Thank you.
