Dear Ms. Johnson:

Following our conversation today, the Philadelphia Parking Authority ("Authority") has decided to withdraw the above referenced Final Rulemaking Order from the Independent Regulatory Review Commission's ("IRRC") final consideration process. We will immediately reach out to the regulated industries and the public and request that they submit any additional comments or concerns about the regulations to the Authority before August 19, 2011. The standing committees will also be notified.

Thank you.
