Subject: Common Core

Message:

Common Core-no matter what is said to be its aim-is nothing more than a way to teach socialism to our children and undermine the basic tennents of our country and our Constitution. We need to go back to the way we taught children years ago, as when I was growing up. We need to foster a thirst for learning, a desire to compete to actually win-not just get an award that everyone else gets-and a desire to learn. Stop Common Core, the American parents do not want it!
