Director Sumner and the IRRC commissioners,

I am a property tax paying resident of Phoenixville (East Pikeland) in Chester County. Currently the district where I reside has the 4th highest per student cost. Phoenixville school district is struggling to ensure no increases in real estate taxes occur this year as we endured quite a large one last year. Our real estate taxes are already quite high compared to neighboring Spring Ford and Great Valley.

While PA attempts to improve the educational standards, please reject any un-funded initiatives, including the proposed Final-Form Chapter 4 Regulations. While our districts are cutting teachers and extra-curricular activities like Music and Art programs, it's hardly the time to consider imposing ANY un-funded initiatives on the backs of tax paying citizens.

Sincerely,
Melissa Persaud
