

Cooper, Kathy

2976

From: Michael Willner <mwillner@AKWlawfirm.com>
Sent: Monday, November 18, 2013 1:16 PM
To: IRRRC
Subject: no to Keystone Exams

We do not need Harrisburg to impose these on school districts. For many, it is a very poor use of time and funds. The time and resources are better spent and directed locally. Do not punish successful school districts out of this overbroad effort to regulate by state government. At the least, allow high performing school districts to opt out.

What ever happened to the less government crowd when we need them?

Michael J. Willner

Allman, Kelly & Willner, LLC
3 Paoli Plaza, Suite E
Paoli, PA 19301
(c) 484-888-5249
(o) 215-352-3838
(f) 800-599-3504
www.akwlawfirm.com

This email is for the intended recipient(s) only and may be confidential and protected by the attorney/client privilege, the attorney work product immunity doctrine or other privilege. If you are not the intended recipient, please advise the sender immediately, and delete or remove this email from your system. Receipt of this email by anyone other than the intended recipient(s) does not constitute a waiver of the attorney/client privilege, the attorney work product immunity doctrine or any other privilege with respect to this email or otherwise. Unauthorized review, use, retention or distribution of this email is prohibited and may be unlawful.*

The term "email", as used herein, includes any attachment(s) hereto as well as all associated metadata.*