How is it that one room schoolhouses produced some amazing pioneers? Little money was needed yet life changing inventions were made before a PC was in almost every home. Cars, microwaves, airplanes, and even a man on the moon. I know a 12 year old who hates Common Core. When asked why he stated that it drags out the work for no good reason. He calls it busy work. He is a bright child that needs stimulated not made into a drone, worker bee. I do not believe that no one can see what this is all about. The GOP wants employees that take orders and the Democrats do not want their funding through tax payer dollars via the unions to stop. The children should not be used as political pawns. This is sickening to the core. TEACH! Period!
