Dear Ms. Montgomery,

I understand that licensing fees must be raised. The cost of $115 is pretty steep for those of us who are retired, living on a fixed income, but wish to work part-time in private practice. With the current economy, many of us are trying to work longer to make ends meet and/or because we are not completely ready to retire.

Please consider a smaller fee for those of us who see under a certain number of clients.

Sincerely,

Maryjane Lesnick Mertz, LCSW
