Subject: ACME comments re Regulation 14-540

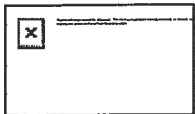

Ms. Mochon,

I appreciate the opportunity to submit comments both personally and professionally. As a small business residential provider with a multitude of responsibilities I rely on associations like PAR to help keep me up to date on best practices. I appreciate the perspective of PAR in support of providers to give insight in addition to my personal comments. I have attached the PAR comments because I feel the PAR group has good intentions for the people I serve and providers who serve them. These comments show the forethought and concern of many providers who have worked together and support DHS's interest in making this change in regulation improve the system for everyone and be fiscally sustainable.

Thank you for your attention to these comments as I am another voice in support of these ideas and considerations.

Sincerely,

Justina Cunningham, MA, MS
