I think this is unfair for all of the massage therapists. Especially if the license is good only for 2 years. But if you raise the renewal of the license but add another 1 or 2 years for that maybe its reasonable. But I don't get it if why the board needs to raise the prices when there are thousands of massage therapist in PA for sure, and just be contented of the same price that you already had implemented. All the massage therapists are working hard to go to school of massage therapy to get a decent job even if we couldn't hardly afford the school and some are still struggling to pay for the debt. Can the people can be just have a "contented" heart?

Thanks.. And God bless!
