$200 for license renewal for massage therapist? Yeah, y'all are really tripping! You do know we have to pay for ce's, which ranges from 200-400 dollars depending on the course right?! It's easy to bump up prices when you're sitting behind a desk and not in the field ! To me y'all sound money hungry, but I'm not surprised! Just leave our shit alone!!! It's so many therapist out here struggling at home, but they go out and bust their asses everyday bc they love what they do! Alex H.
