Subject: Massage License Fee Increase

To Whom it May Concern,

I am a Licensed Massage Therapist in the state of PA. This is my career and livelihood and I hope to be able to continue forward on this path, however, this proposed increase is astronomical, unacceptable and UNETHICAL to say the least.

The board needs to be collecting fines from those who are not "playing by the rules", instead of punishing the therapists who are working hard, following the rules and having to pay very high fees for required continuing education courses.

The issues mentioned in the meeting minutes, are a result from problems WITHIN the board and management and SHOULD NOT be put on the therapists!

If this increase goes through, therapists (including myself) will be forced to look at other states to move our practices.

THIS INCREASE MUST NOT BE PUSHED THROUGH AND APPROVED!

Thank you,
Jennifer Charles, LMT
