To whom it may concern:

I'm extremely concerned about the proposed massage fee increases. Not only will this make things more difficult for CE providers and future students, but also current licensed massage therapists. They will need to adjust and budget differently for the entire years and many therapists, simply do not have the funds to put out for this. In order to keep the massage profession respected with regulating licensure, we need to continue to promote stability, flexibility, and ease with our massage therapists. I would understand if you needed to increase the renewal fee to even $100, but $200 is too much of a jump all of a sudden. Especially with the upcoming renewal year, many therapists haven't been able to plan for this added expense. Please think about lowering how high the increase is and do it gradually if need be.

Thank you for your time.
