It is essential that we use our resources responsibly. This is appropriate as PA is 4th from the bottom in our contribution to CO2 emissions. That which affects our air. water. etc. needs to be taxed or have a fee to equal the real cost of using such products. This is having the total cost current rather than having it come out of future generations. The RGGI is a step in the right direction of our responsibility to our children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. We need to be good stewards of the earth.
