I believe Tom Wolf has invoked enough shut down of businesses and wants to inflict more harm by adding another tax to a load of taxes we already are paying. We pay a PA state tax from our paychecks, then state sales tax, 8% in Philadelphia, add soda tax in Philadelphia that is not only on soda as promised. There is tax on craft beer, tax on tanning salons, tax on your property every year, tax on a car from first purchase then if it is sold 10 times in its lifetime, it is taxed again. Where do the taxes go. Bars, Restaurants, gyms closed for more months than they were opened, for a virus that has a 99% recovery rate. This tax is no good!! I saw comments this is a step in the right direction...then donate your salary to cover those who can't since their businesses were destroyed by nonsense.
