I support Pennsylvania joining the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative for three reasons:

1. It will reduce pollution and clean up our air. As a person with asthma, I know first hand how much difference it makes for me to breather clean air. Tens of thousands of other Pennsylvanians like me will benefit.
2. Efforts to decrease carbon dioxide emissions lead to new jobs, many new jobs. Joining the RGGI is a sure way to put Pennsylvanians to work in good paying jobs.
3. Joining the RGGI will generate revenue that the state can provide for further programs that reduce carbon dioxide.

The CO2 Budget Trading Program will benefit all Pennsylvanians. Please do it.
