Every morning I wake up to the smell of sulfur in the air. I file almost daily reports to the health department. I have an autoimmune disorder and I have no idea how the air quality is affecting it. We all deserve clean air. We all need clean air to live long and healthy lives. Its not even a matter of something we want. We need it. We need clean air to survive. Why do we even have to ask? Are you not human, do you not need clean air? Do you not breathe in your neighborhoods?
