Good morning.

As a Pennsylvania citizen, I STRONGLY urge support for the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative.

Not only is combating global warming and pollution in general a moral imperative, it is the wave of the future for jobs and prosperity for all of us.

We can not control what other countries or even states do, but I want to see our Commonwealth as a leader in moving into a better future for our people and future generations.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Judith Smullen
