I have been at Conemaugh for about a year now and truly enjoy my role as a Budget Analyst. It's a refreshing career change after 13 years from a large corporate financial institution in downtown Pittsburgh to a close knit community in New Florence. I took on this new role as I transitioned back to work from the birth of my son. It has been a great opportunity for me and I enjoy the work/home balance. Additionally this job has given my husband the opportunity to stay home and raise our son rather than sending him to day care. I am hopeful to stay with the company for as long as it can run and if it can run until I am able to retire in 30+ years I'd be very grateful!!
