As a resident of Pennsylvania, and being employed by a company that would be effected by this, I am not in favor of the Wolf Administration moving forward with its plan for Pennsylvania to join the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative (RGGI). Joining this consortium would impose a carbon tax on electricity production, raising energy bills for consumers and making the state's energy industry less competitive with neighboring states.

Now is certainly not the time to raise taxes and increase bills on so many people that are struggling to pay bills already.
