As a resident of Pennsylvania, I am very thankful that I live within a few minutes of Maryland so I can buy gas/diesel at much lower prices than Pa. I refuse to pay Pa's higher taxes on fuel unless I absolutely have to. That being said, I do not want or need an increase in taxes or more taxes on top of everything we already have. With everything going on with the whole covid unconstitutional overstep of our current governor and secretary of health that has successfully destroyed small businesses and fellow Pennsylvanian's livelihoods, this is not acceptable.
