Deputy Director, Office of Policy

The proposed new regulation regarding Medicare paperwork requirements appear to be a situation where"less is more". I am a resident at Foulkeways in Gwynedd, PA. Our small (52) bed nursing facility provides high quality care for residents in independent living when they need temporary care, as well as for nursing residents.

I spent four days there after hip replacement surgery last July. Federal Medicare regulations would to have ben of benefit to me, but would have added to my cost if they were in place.

Sincerely,
Carol Bradley
