To whom it may concern: I gladly share my experience and tell you I totally credit Dr Julie Lachman with my robust health and strong bones. Due to osteoporosis and my reluctance to take 'controversial' medicines, Dr Lachman's regime of natural products has kept me break free with no loss of height for over ten years! Dr Lachman's extensive consultation process takes the whole person into her treatment; emotional and mental health clearly impacts our quality of health which unfortunately doesn't seem to fit into 'traditional' medicine.

I value Dr Lachman and her attention to keeping her patients living the healthiest life possible without the use of potentially harmful 'pharma'. My daughter is a patient as well.

Sincerely,

Deborah Neff
