(7) Briefly explain the regulation in clear and nontechnical language. (100 words or less) This final-form rulemaking is needed to update the Board's existing regulations on the subject of child abuse reporting to be consistent with amendments to the Child Protective Services Law (CPSL) (23 Pa.C.S. §§ 6301-6388), including the requirement imposed by the act of April 15, 2014 (P.L. 411, No. 31) (Act 31) on all health-related boards to require training in child abuse recognition and reporting for licensees who are considered "mandated reporters" under the CPSL.
(8) State the statutory authority for the regulation. Include specific statutory citation. Section 3(b)(14) of the Optometric Practice and Licensure Act (63 P.S. § 244.3(b)(14)) sets forth the Board's general rulemaking authority. Under 23 Pa.C.S. Chapter 63 (relating to Child Protective Services Law) (CPSL), specifically section 6383(b)(2) of the CPSL (relating to education and training), the Board is required to promulgate regulations to implement the mandatory reporting requirements for licensees of the Board.

(9) Is the regulation mandated by any federal or state law or court order, or federal regulation? Are there any relevant state or federal court decisions? If yes, cite the specific law, case or regulation as well as, any deadlines for action.

Yes, section 6383(b)(2) of the CPSL requires the Board to promulgate regulations to implement the mandatory reporting requirements for licensees of the Board.

(10) State why the regulation is needed. Explain the compelling public interest that justifies the regulation. Describe who will benefit from the regulation. Quantify the benefits as completely as possible and approximate the number of people who will benefit.

Since 2014, the General Assembly has made numerous amendments to the CPSL, including the requirement imposed by Act 31 on all health-related Boards to require training in child abuse recognition and reporting for licensees who are considered "mandated reporters" under the CPSL. Section 2 of Act 31 provided that these training requirements would apply to all persons applying for a license, or applying for renewal of a license, on or after January 1, 2015, and were implemented as of that date. These amendments are required to update the Board's existing regulations on the subject of child abuse reporting to comport to the numerous amendments made to the CPSL, and to incorporate the mandatory training requirements required by Act 31.

All applicants and licensees will benefit by receiving mandatory training with regard to their responsibilities under the CPSL, and all Pennsylvania children will benefit from the increased protections provided by the amendments. Licensees will further benefit from regulations that are consistent with the CPSL, as amended, to avoid confusion as to their responsibilities in this area.

(11) Are there any provisions that are more stringent than federal standards? If yes, identify the specific provisions and the compelling Pennsylvania interest that demands stronger regulations.

No. There are no federal standards on the topic.

(12) How does this regulation compare with those of the other states? How will this affect Pennsylvania's ability to compete with other states?

This regulation will not adversely affect Pennsylvania's ability to compete with other states. All surrounding states also have regulations on reporting child abuse.

In Connecticut, in accordance with CT Statutes Chapter 319a - Child Welfare, Sec. 17a-101, certain health-related professionals, including optometrists, are mandated to report suspected child abuse or neglect to the Department of Children and Families' Child Abuse and Neglect Careline or a law enforcement agency. Any mandated reporter who fails to make a required report is guilty of a class A misdemeanor, except that person is guilty of a class E felony if the violation is a subsequent violation, the violation was willful or intentional or due to gross negligence, or the person had actual knowledge that a child was abused or neglected. Connecticut requires an oral or electronic report to be made by a mandated reporter as soon as practicable but no later than 12 hours after the mandated reporter has reasonable cause to suspect or believe that a child has been abused or neglected or placed in imminent risk of serious harm. If an oral report is made, the mandated reporter shall submit a written or electronic report within 48 hours after making the oral report. Mandated reporters who make a good faith report are protected from retaliation by an employer and are immune from any liability, civil or criminal, which might otherwise arise from or be related to the actions taken by the mandated reporter. Free training is available to all mandated reporters.

In Delaware, under Title 16 Del. Code § 903, all persons are required to make an immediate report to the Department of Services for Children, Youth and their Families when they know of, or suspect, child abuse or neglect and to follow up with any required written reports. Delaware now accepts electronic reports at the Delaware Division of Family Services Reporter Portal but can also accept oral reports to their telephone hotline. Mandatory reporter training is available through the Office of the Child Advocate. Individuals who fail to report child abuse or neglect may be liable to a civil penalty of not to exceed $10,000 for a first offense, or not to exceed $50,000 for subsequent violations.

In Maine, child abuse or neglect reports must be made immediately by telephone to the Department of Health and Human Service, Office of Child and Family Services' hotline. Under Title 22 of the Maine Revised Statutes § 4011-A, mandated reporters include various types of health care practitioners, however optometrists are not specifically enumerated, so it would appear that they are considered permitted reporters. In Maine, mandated reporters must immediately make a report when that person knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that a child has been or is likely to be abused or neglected or that a suspicious child death has occurred. The report must be made by telephone immediately and followed by a written report within 48 hours if requested. Mandated reporters may submit reports electronically. In Maine, mandated reporters shall complete mandated reporter training at least once every 4 years.

In Maryland, under MD Family § 5-701—5-715 (relating to child abuse and neglect) all health practitioners (which includes any person who is authorized to practice healing under the Health Occupations Article or § 13-516 of the Education Article) are required to report both orally and in writing any suspected child abuse or neglect. Optometrists are considered health practitioners in that they are authorized to practice healing under the Health Occupations Article at Title 11. In addition, any other person in the state other than a health practitioner, police officer, educator or human service worker who has reason to believe that child has been subjected to abuse or neglect shall notify the local department or the appropriate law enforcement agency. Oral reports must be made immediately, and written reports must be made within 48 hours of contact in which the disclosure of the suspected abuse or neglect was given. All reports of abuse must be made to the local departments of social services and the appropriate law enforcement agency. If a licensee knowingly fails to report suspected abuse of a child, they may be subject to professional sanctions by licensing boards. Under MD Criminal Code § 3-606.2, a mandated reporter having actual knowledge of abuse or neglect who knowingly fails to make a required report commits a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or imprisonment not exceeding 3 years, or both. Anyone making a good faith report is immune from civil liability and criminal penalty. While not required, mandated reporter training is available.

In Massachusetts, under Massachusetts General Law Annotated 119 § 21 (relating to definitions applicable to sections 21 to 51H), various health care practitioners, including optometrists, are considered mandated reporters. Under MGLA 119 § 51A, mandated reporters must report to the Department of Children and Families when they suspect that a child is being abused or neglected immediately by telephone to the DCF area office that services the city or town where the child lives or the Child-at-Risk Hotline. As a mandated reporter, one must also mail or fax a written report to the Department within 48 hours of making the oral report. Mandated reporters are required to report any physical or emotional injury resulting from abuse; any indication of neglect, including malnutrition; any instance in which a child is determined to be physically dependent upon an addictive drug at birth; any suspicion of child sexual exploitation or human trafficking; or death as a result of abuse or neglect.

Failure to make required reports subjects the mandated reporter to fines up to $1,000 for a first offense. A mandated reporter that willfully fails to report child abuse or neglect that results in serious bodily injury or death is subject to a fine of up to $ 5,000 and 2 ½ years in jail and be reported to the person's professional licensing board. All mandated reporters who are professionally licensed are required to complete training to recognize and report child abuse and neglect. DCF has an online training video available for mandatory reporters.

Similarly, in New Hampshire, under N. H. Rev. Stat. § 169-C:29 (relating to persons required to report), various health care practitioners, including optometrists, as well as any other person having reason to suspect that a child has been abused or neglected are considered mandated reporters. Mandated reporters are required to report suspected child abuse or neglect to the Central Intake Unit of the New Hampshire Division for Children, Youth and Families. An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone and followed within 48 hours by a report in writing, if requested. Individuals who make a good faith report have immunity from civil and criminal liability; and privileged communications between a professional and their patient/client is does not apply and does not excuse the failure to report. Failure to report is a misdemeanor. Training on the reporting requirements is not required.

In New Jersey, under N.J.S.A 9:6-8.8—8:6-8.20 (relating to abused child—reports and protective custody) any person having reasonable cause to believe that a child has been subjected to abuse, including sexual abuse, shall report immediately to the State Central Registry's hotline. Individuals making reports of child abuse have immunity from civil or criminal liability. Any person who knowingly fails to report suspected abuse or neglect according to the law or to comply with provisions of the law is a "disorderly person." However, if the failure to report involves sexual abuse it is a crime of the fourth degree. The New Jersey Department of Children and Families offers an online Mandated Reporter Training resource.

In New York, under NY Soc Serv § 413, various health care practitioners, including optometrists, are considered mandated reporters. Mandated reporters are required by law to report suspected abuse or maltreatment to the New York Statewide Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment whenever they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child coming before them in their professional or occupational capacity is an abused or maltreated child, or when they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is an abused or maltreated child where the parent, guardian, custodian or other persons legally responsible for such child comes before them in their professional or official capacity and states from personal knowledge facts, conditions or circumstances which, if correct, would render the child an abused or maltreated child. The law also assigns civil and criminal liability to those professionals who do not comply with their mandated reporter duties; including being criminally charged with a Class A misdemeanor, being subject to criminal penalties, and being sued in a civil court for monetary damages for any harm causes by the failure to report. Reasonable cause to suspect child abuse or maltreatment means that, based on one's observations, professional training and experience, a licensee believes the parent or person legally responsible for a child has harmed that child or placed that child in imminent danger or harm. In addition, New York requires individuals, when applying initially for licensure, to complete 2 hours of coursework or training in the identification and reporting of child abuse and maltreatment. This is a one-time requirement and once taken does not need to be completed again. The New York State Education Department, Office of the Professions oversees the training requirements for mandated reporters.

In Ohio, under Ohio R. C. § 2151.421 (relating to persons required to report injury or neglect; procedures on receipt of report), all health care professionals and practitioners of a limited branch of medicine are considered mandated reporters. The definition of "health care professional" in Ohio includes optometrists. Mandated reporters are required to report if a child under the age of 18 or a mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or physically impaired person under the age of 21 has been abused or neglected. A licensee making a report shall make it to the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services hotline, or to the public children services agency or municipal or county peace officer in the county in which the child resides. The report must be made immediately by telephone or in person and must be followed by a written report if requested. Failure to report is generally a misdemeanor. Additionally, a mandated reporter who fails to make a required report is liable for compensatory and exemplary damages to the child who would have been the subject of the report that was not made. There does not appear to be a mandatory training requirement in Ohio. All other persons are considered permissive reporters and may make a report if they know, or have reasonable cause to suspect, that a child under eighteen years of age or a person under 21 years of age with a developmental disability or physical impairment has suffered or faces a threat of abuse.

In Virginia, under Title 63.2 of the Code of Virginia § 63.2-1509, any person licensed to practice any of the healing arts must report if they have reason to suspect a child is an abused or neglected child immediately to the local department of the county or city where the child resides, where the abuse or neglect is believed to have occurred, or to the Department of Social Service's toll-free child abuse and neglect hotline. "Healing arts" is defined as the arts and sciences dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and cure or alleviation of human physical or mental ailments, conditions, diseases, pain or infirmities." Thus, an optometrist would be a mandated reporter in Virginia. A person making a good faith report or testifying in any judicial proceeding arising from such report is immune from criminal or civil liability or administrative penalty or sanction. Any person required to file a report who fails to do so, shall be fined not more than $500 for the first failure and for any subsequent failures not more than $1,000 and may be charged with a Class I misdemeanor. Mandated reporter training on recognizing and reporting child abuse and neglect is available on the Virginia Department of Social Services website.

In West Virginia, under W.Va. Code § 49-2-803, any medical, dental or mental health professional is a mandated reporter and is required to report suspected child abuse or neglect. The term "medical professional" is undefined, but the Board believes that the term includes optometrists. When a licensee suspects that a child is being abused or neglected, or observes a child being subjected to conditions that are likely to result in abuse or neglect, or believes that a child has suffered serious physical abuse, sexual abuse or sexual assault, a report must be made to the Child Protective Services unit in the county office of the Department of Health and Human Resources where the licensee is located or the State Police or other law enforcement agency that has jurisdiction to investigate the report. The Department of Health and Human Resources maintains a 24-hour toll free reporting hotline. Reports must be made immediately by phone and followed up within 48 hours by a written report, if requested. Anyone making a good faith report is immune from civil or criminal liability. Failure to file a required report is a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment up to 90 days, a fine of up to $5,000, or both. There does not appear to be a mandatory training requirement.

Based on these requirements from other states, the Board believes that this regulation will not place Pennsylvania at a competitive disadvantage.

(13) Will the regulation affect any other regulations of the promulgating agency or other state agencies? If yes, explain and provide specific citations.

No. The regulation does not affect any other regulations of the agency or other state agencies. However, there are additional boards that will be promulgating similar regulations in the upcoming months.

(14) Describe the communications with and solicitation of input from the public, any advisory council/group, small businesses and groups representing small businesses in the development and drafting of the regulation. List the specific persons and/or groups who were involved. ("Small business" is defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012.)

The Board began discussions relating to necessary updates to its regulations in 2014 due to recent amendments to the CPSL. At its May 12, 2016, board meeting, the Board voted to release an exposure draft of an earlier version of this rulemaking to interested parties and stakeholders. See attached list. No comments were received. In addition, the Board discusses its regulatory proposals at regularly scheduled public meetings of the Board. Representatives of the professional associations representing the regulated community routinely attend those meetings. The rulemaking was discussed at Board meetings beginning at the May 15, 2014, meeting and culminating in the Board's meeting on August 20, 2020, at which time the Board voted to move forward and promulgate the proposed rulemaking. Representatives of the Pennsylvania Optometric Association were present during these meetings.

Notice of the proposed rulemaking was published at 53 Pa.B. 2306 (April 29, 2023). Publication was followed by a 30-day public comment period during which the Board received no public comments. Additionally, there were no comments received from Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) other than to say that they have no objections, comments or recommendations to offer. IRRC further advised that if the final form rulemaking is delivered without revisions, and the committees do not take any action, it will be deemed approved. The House Professional Licensure Committee (HPLC) and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee (SCP/PLC) did not submit comments. The Board met thereafter in public session on August 24, 2023 and voted to promulgate this final-form rulemaking. Representatives of the Pennsylvania Optometric Association were likewise present at that meeting.

(15) Identify the types and number of persons, businesses, small businesses (as defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012) and organizations which will be affected by the regulation. How are they affected?

All licensees of the Board will be affected by the regulation, including those that are or work for small businesses. At the present time, there are approximately 2,930 optometrists licensed by the Board. In addition, all applicants for licensure would be affected by the mandatory training requirements set forth in the final-form regulation as required under section 6383(b)(3)(i) of the CPSL. The Board currently processes an average of approximately 159 initial licensure applications per year (based on the average over the last five full calendar years 2018 – 2022).

According to the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry in 2020 (the most recent year for which data is available), 44% of optometrists work in offices of other health care providers, while 24% work in offices of physicians. Approximately 20% report that they are self-employed and therefore, work in offices of optometrists. In addition, 7% of optometrists work in health and personal care stores. The remainder 5% work for the federal government; in colleges, universities and professional schools; outpatient care centers; other ambulatory health care services; and specialty hospitals.

Small businesses are defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, (71 P.S. § 745.3) which provides that a small business is defined by the SBA's Small Business Size Regulations under 13 CFR Ch. 1 Part 121. These size standards have been established for types of businesses under the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS). In applying the 2023 NAICS standards to the types of businesses where optometrists may work, offices of optometrists (NAICS code #621320) would be considered a small business if their average annual receipts are $9.0 million or less. The small business threshold for offices of physicians (NAICS #621111) is $16.0 million or less in average annual receipts. For offices of other miscellaneous health care practitioners (NAICS # 621399), a small business is one with average annual receipts of $10.0 million or less. Health and personal care stores (NAICS #456199) are considered small businesses if they have average annual receipts of $9.5 million or less. The small business threshold for colleges, universities and professional schools (NAICS #611310) is $34.5 million or less in average annual receipts. For specialty hospitals (NAICS #622310), a small business is one with $47 million or less in average annual receipts, and outpatient care centers (NCAICS #621498) would be a small business if they have average annual receipts of $25.5 million or less. Finally, the small business threshold for all other miscellaneous ambulatory health care services (NCAICS #621999) is $20.5 million in average annual receipts.

Based upon this variety of employers, the Board believes that most optometrists in Pennsylvania are employed in small businesses. However, the Board does not collect information on the size of the businesses where its licensees are employed. For purposes of determining the economic impact on small businesses, the Board assumes that a large number of its licensees either are or work for small businesses as that term is defined by the SBA and Pennsylvania's Regulatory Review Act. Those licensees that are self-employed are likely small businesses that would be impacted by the costs associated with this final-form rulemaking. For those licensees who are employees of small businesses, whether these small businesses will be impacted by the regulations depends on whether the businesses would pay costs associated with obtaining the initial and continuing education relating to child abuse recognition and reporting for employees. Because these costs are associated with individuals applying for initial licensure or licensure renewal, any business (small or otherwise) could avoid these costs by requiring employees to bear the costs associated with compliance.

(16) List the persons, groups or entities, including small businesses, that will be required to comply with the regulation. Approximate the number that will be required to comply.

All licensees of the Board will be affected by the regulation, including those that are or work for small businesses. At the present time, there are approximately 2,930 optometrists licensed by the Board. In addition, all applicants for a license issued by the Board would be affected by the mandatory training requirements set forth in the final-form rulemaking as required under section 6383(b)(3)(i) of the CPSL. The Board currently processes an average of approximately 159 initial licensure applications a year.

(17) Identify the financial, economic and social impact of the regulation on individuals, small businesses, businesses and labor communities and other public and private organizations. Evaluate the benefits expected as a result of the regulation.

The Board does not anticipate significant fiscal impact or paperwork requirements relating to the rulemaking. Because licensees of the Board are already required to complete mandatory continuing education, and the 2 hours of continuing education in child abuse recognition and reporting are incorporated in the existing requirement, there would be no increased burden. Only applicants for licensure would incur an additional requirement, and because there are many low-cost and free options available to complete the training, the Board anticipates this impact to also be minimal, ranging in cost from $0 to $100 per course. Because all approved Act 31 training providers are required to report attendance or participation electronically, there are no additional paperwork requirements imposed on licensees or applicants. In addition, the implementation of an electronic reporting system for mandatory reporters of suspected child abuse under the CPSL by the Department of Human Services has decreased the paperwork requirements related to the mandatory reporting requirements. The regulation benefits all licensees, by providing clarity regarding the reporting obligations; and benefits all Pennsylvania children by the increased protections provided.

(18) Explain how the benefits of the regulation outweigh any cost and adverse effects.

Because any costs or adverse effects are minimal, the benefits to the regulated community of clarity regarding their reporting obligations and the increased protections to Pennsylvania children far outweigh the costs. Licensees and applicants can minimize or eliminate the costs associated with the mandated training by choosing to complete one of the free or low-cost options.

(19) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the regulated community associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required. Explain how the dollar estimates were derived.

There should be no additional cost to most existing licensees to comply with the updated regulations to complete the 2 hours of continuing education, as these are not additional requirements, but are incorporated as part of their existing continuing education already required as a condition of biennial renewal. In fact, the new electronic reporting system will reduce any paperwork requirements. The only individuals who would incur additional costs are applicants for licensure, who need to complete 3 hours of approved training in child abuse recognition and reporting as a condition of licensure. However, because there are numerous low-cost and free options available, this cost to the individual is minimal. Additionally, as more and more schools are submitting their courses for approval, more and more applicants will have completed the required training as part of their professional education and will incur no additional costs. At the present time, the cost for the required training ranges from free to $100 per course.

For purposes of this rulemaking, the Board is assuming that most applicants would choose a free or low-cost option and estimates a cost of no more than $25 each on average. At an average of 159 applications per year, the cost to applicants is estimated at $3,975 annually. However, these costs could be eliminated by choosing to complete one of the free options.

(20) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the local governments associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required. Explain how the dollar estimates were derived.

There are no costs or savings to local governments associated with compliance with the rulemaking.

(21) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the state government associated with the implementation of the regulation, including any legal, accounting, or consulting procedures which may be required. Explain how the dollar estimates were derived.

The costs to state government associated with implementation of the regulation include the costs associated with the electronic reporting system by which approved providers submit attendance/participation records to the Bureau and the administrative costs of assuring applicants have complied with the training requirements. The costs associated with the electronic reporting system included an initial system upgrade of $35,000 incurred in fiscal year 2014-2015. Ongoing annual operating costs of approximately $90,000 include the costs associated with reviewing application records to determine compliance, sending discrepancy letters, responding to inquiries, working with the IT consultant, managing the child abuse education resource account, approving new courses, etc. These costs are allocated to the 16 boards that are impacted by the training requirements.

(22) For each of the groups and entities identified in items (19)-(21) above, submit a statement of legal, accounting or consulting procedures and additional reporting, recordkeeping or other paperwork, including copies of forms or reports, which will be required for implementation of the regulation and an explanation of measures which have been taken to minimize these requirements.

There are no additional legal, accounting or consulting procedures or additional reporting, recordkeeping or other paperwork requirements required of the regulated community. The Bureau/Board has additional recordkeeping responsibilities in receiving, retaining, and retrieving electronic records of completed child abuse training for applicants and licensees.

(22a) Are forms required for implementation of the regulation?

No forms are required for implementation of this regulation, as completion of the required child abuse training is being reported electronically to the Bureau by the course provider.

(22b) If forms are required for implementation of the regulation, attach copies of the forms here. If your agency uses electronic forms, provide links to each form or a detailed description of the information required to be reported. Failure to attach forms, provide links, or provide a detailed description of the information to be reported will constitute a faulty delivery of the regulation.

(24) For any regulation that may have an adverse impact on small businesses (as defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012), provide an economic impact statement that includes the following:

- (a) An identification and estimate of the number of small businesses subject to the regulation.

Assuming most licensees of the board either are, or work for, small businesses, up to 2,930 small businesses may be subject to the regulation.

- (b) The projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative costs required for compliance with the regulation, including the type of professional skills necessary for preparation of the report or record.

The new streamlined electronic system for making reports of suspected child abuse has decreased the paperwork requirement related to mandatory reporting. In addition, as the approved course provider is required to report participation/attendance in the required training/continuing education electronically to the Bureau, licensees and applicants have no additional reporting requirements. No professional skills are necessary to the preparation of any report or record under this regulation.

- (c) A statement of probable effect on impacted small businesses.

The regulation should have minimal adverse impact on small businesses. The costs associated with the final-form regulation fall primarily on individual applicants and licensees, and not on their employers. Although licensees who operate or are employees of small businesses now have to complete mandatory training in child abuse recognition and reporting, the law and regulations provide that this requirement is incorporated in the existing continuing education requirements, so there is no increased burden. Therefore, only applicants for licensure would have a new requirement to complete training in child abuse recognition and reporting. Many approved courses are free or low cost. Most small businesses that employ licensees of the Board could avoid any impact by requiring their employees to pay for their own licensure-related costs, including the costs associated with continuing education.

- (d) A description of any less intrusive or less costly alternative methods of achieving the purpose of the regulation.

As noted, many approved courses are free or low cost. Small businesses can avoid any impact by requiring their employees to pay for their own licensure-related costs, including the costs associated with continuing education. Also, the costs associated with completing the mandatory training in child abuse recognition and reporting could be avoided by selecting one of the free options for completing this training. The Board could discern no less costly alternative methods of achieving the purposes of the regulation or the CPSL.

(25) List any special provisions which have been developed to meet the particular needs of affected groups or persons including, but not limited to, minorities, the elderly, small businesses, and farmers.

The Board has identified no special groups that needed special provisions. The CPSL applies equally to all mandated reporters.

(26) Include a description of any alternative regulatory provisions which have been considered and rejected and a statement that the least burdensome acceptable alternative has been selected.

No alternative regulatory provisions have been considered. The Board believes that these regulations provide the least burdensome means of complying with the CPSL.

(27) In conducting a regulatory flexibility analysis, explain whether regulatory methods were considered that will minimize any adverse impact on small businesses (as defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012), including:

- a) The establishment of less stringent compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;

No less stringent compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses would be consistent with the goals of the CPSL.

- b) The establishment of less stringent schedules or deadlines for compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;

No less stringent schedules or deadlines for compliance for small businesses would be consistent with the goals of the CPSL.

- c) The consolidation or simplification of compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;

The new electronic reporting process established by the Department of Human Services simplifies the reporting process for all businesses, including small businesses.

- d) The establishment of performance standards for small businesses to replace design or operational standards required in the regulation; and

There are no design or operational standards in the regulation.

- e) The exemption of small businesses from all or any part of the requirements contained in the regulation.

Exempting small businesses or employees of small businesses from any of the requirements contained in the regulation would not be consistent with the intent of the CPSL.

(28) If data is the basis for this regulation, please provide a description of the data, explain in detail how the data was obtained, and how it meets the acceptability standard for empirical, replicable and testable data that is supported by documentation, statistics, reports, studies or research. Please submit data or supporting materials with the regulatory package. If the material exceeds 50 pages, please provide it in a searchable electronic format or provide a list of citations and internet links that, where possible, can be accessed in a searchable format in lieu of the actual material. If other data was considered but not used, please explain why that data was determined not to be acceptable.

No data is the basis for this regulation.

(29) Include a schedule for review of the regulation including:

- A. The length of the public comment period: 30 days.
- B. The date or dates on which any public meetings or hearings will be held: The Board considers its regulatory proposals at regularly scheduled public meetings, a schedule of which is included in item (30) below.
- C. The expected date of delivery of the final-form regulation: Fall 2023
- D. The expected effective date of the final-form regulation: Upon publication of the final-form rulemaking in the Pennsylvania Bulletin – expected in Fall/Winter of 2023
- E. The expected date by which compliance with the final-form regulation will be required: Upon notice or publication of the final-form rulemaking in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.
- F. The expected date by which required permits, licenses or other approvals must be obtained: N/A

(30) Describe the plan developed for evaluating the continuing effectiveness of the regulations after its implementation.

The Board continually reviews the efficacy of its regulations, as part of its annual review process under Executive Order 1996-1. The Board reviews its regulatory proposals at regularly scheduled public meetings. The Board will meet on the following remaining date in 2023: December 7, 2023; and on the following dates in 2024: February 1, May 9, August 8 and December 19, 2024.

FINAL RULEMAKING

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
BUREAU OF PROFESSIONAL AND OCCUPATIONAL AFFAIRS
STATE BOARD OF OPTOMETRY

TITLE 49 PA CODE CHAPTER 23

§§ 23.1, 23.11, 23.21, 23.26, 23.81—23.83, and 23.111—23.118

CHILD ABUSE REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

The State Board of Optometry (Board) hereby amends §§ 23.1, 23.11, 23.21, 23.26, 23.81—23.83, 23.111—23.116, and adds §§ 23.117 and 23.118 (relating to child abuse recognition and reporting—mandatory training requirement; and child abuse recognition and reporting course approval process) to read as set forth in Annex A.

Effective date

The final-form rulemaking will be effective upon publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Statutory authority

Section 3(b)(14) of the Optometric Practice and Licensure Act (act) (63 P.S. § 244.3(b)(14)) sets forth the Board’s general rulemaking authority. Under 23 Pa.C.S. Chapter 63 (relating to Child Protective Services Law) (CPSL), specifically section 6383(b)(2) of the CPSL (relating to education and training), the Board is required to promulgate regulations to implement the mandatory reporting requirements for licensees of the Board.

Background and Need for this Final-Form Rulemaking

Since 2014, the General Assembly has made numerous amendments to the CPSL, including the requirement imposed by the act of April 15, 2014 (P.L. 411, No. 31) (Act 31) on all health-related Boards to require training in child abuse recognition and reporting for licensees who are considered “mandated reporters” under the CPSL. Section 2 of Act 31 provided that these training requirements would apply to all persons applying for a license, or applying for renewal of a license, on or after January 1, 2015, and were implemented as of that date. This final-form rulemaking is required to update the Board’s existing regulations on the subject-of child abuse reporting to comport to the numerous amendments made to the CPSL, and to incorporate the mandatory training requirements required by Act 31.

Specifically, the Board is amending § 23.1 (relating to definitions) to update the definitions of terms used in the CPSL. Additionally, the Board is amending, where necessary throughout the rulemaking, the name of the Department of Public Welfare, as the name of that agency has changed to the Department of Human Services. In addition, the Board is amending §§ 23.11 and 23.21 (relating to qualifications for license by examination; and reciprocal application) to incorporate the requirement that applicants for licensure complete at least 3 hours of approved training in child abuse recognition and reporting as required under section 6383(b)(3)(i) of the CPSL as a condition of licensure. The Board is also amending § 23.26 (relating to volunteer license) to incorporate the mandatory training requirements for applicants for a volunteer license in subsection (c) and for biennial renewal of a volunteer license in subsection (e). Further, the Board is amending the continuing education regulations at §§ 23.81—23.83 (relating to coverage; continuing education hour requirements; and continuing education subject matter) to incorporate the 2 hours of mandatory continuing education in child abuse recognition and reporting required under section 6383(b)(3)(ii) of the CPSL.

In addition, the Board is making comprehensive amendments to the Board’s existing child abuse reporting requirements in §§ 23.111—23.116 to comport to the numerous amendments made to the CPSL since 2014. Finally, the Board is adding two new sections to incorporate the mandatory training requirements set forth in section 6383(b)(3)(i) and (ii) of the CPSL. Section 23.117 (relating to child abuse recognition and reporting—mandatory training requirement) sets forth the requirement that all individuals applying to the Board for an initial license are required to complete at least 3 hours of approved training in child abuse recognition and reporting; and that all licensees seeking renewal of a license are required to complete at least 2 hours of approved continuing education in child abuse recognition and reporting as a requirement of renewal. This section also includes the process for applying for an exemption from the mandatory training requirements as set forth in section 6383(b)(4) and (6) of the CPSL, for individuals who have already completed similar training or who otherwise should be exempt from the training requirements.

Finally, the Board is adding § 21.118 (relating to child abuse recognition and reporting course approval process) to set forth the administrative process developed by the Bureau, in conjunction with the Department of Human Services, for individuals, entities and organizations to apply for approval to deliver the training required under Act 31. To be approved to provide the mandatory training in child abuse recognition and reporting, an individual, entity or organization must be able to report attendance and participation electronically to the Bureau. In this manner, the completion of the training is automatically imported into the individual's record with the Board at the time the course is completed.

Summary and Response to Comments

Notice of the proposed rulemaking was published at 53 Pa.B. 2306 (April 29, 2023). Publication was followed by a 30-day public comment period during which the Board received no public comments. Additionally, there were no comments received from Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) other than to say that they have no objections, comments or recommendations to offer. IRRC further advised that if the final form rulemaking is delivered without revisions, and the committees do not take any action, it will be deemed approved. The House Professional Licensure Committee (HPLC) and the Senate Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure Committee (SCP/PLC) did not submit comments. For these reasons, the Board made no changes to the final-form rulemaking.

Fiscal Impact and Paperwork Requirements

The Board does not anticipate any significant fiscal impact or paperwork requirements relating to these amendments. Because licensees are already required to complete mandatory continuing education, and these 2 hours in child abuse recognition and reporting are incorporated into the existing requirement, there would be no increased burden. Only applicants for licensure would incur an additional requirement, and as there are many low-cost and free options available to complete the training, the Board anticipates this impact to also be minimal. Because all approved training providers of the mandatory training in child abuse recognition and reporting are required to report attendance or participation electronically, there are no additional paperwork requirements imposed on licensees. In addition, the implementation of an electronic reporting system for mandated reporters of child abuse under the CPSL by the Department of Human Services has decreased the paperwork requirements related to the mandatory reporting requirements.

Sunset Date

The Board continuously monitors the effectiveness of its regulations on a fiscal year and biennial basis. Therefore, no sunset date has been assigned.

Regulatory Review

Under Section 5(a) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5(a)), on November 6, 2023, the Board submitted a copy of this rulemaking and a copy of a regulatory analysis form to the IRRC and to the Chairpersons of the SCP/PLC and the HPLC. A copy of this material is available to the public upon request.

Under section 5(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC, the HPLC and the SCP/PLC were provided with copies of the comments received during the public comment period, as well as other documents when requested. In preparing the final-form rulemaking, the Board has made no revisions based on a lack of comments received from the public, IRRC, the HPLC and the SCP/PLC.

Under section 5.1(g)(3) and (j.2) of the Regulatory Review Act (71 P.S. § 745.5a(g)(3) and (j.2)), on _____, 2023, the final-form rulemaking was deemed approved by the HPLC and the SCP/PLC. Under section 5.1(e) of the Regulatory Review Act, IRRC met on _____, 2023, and approved the final-form rulemaking.

Additional Information

Additional information may be obtained by writing to Shakeena Chapelle, Board Administrator, State Board of Optometry, P. O. Box 2649, Harrisburg, PA 17105-2649, ST-OPTOMETRY@PA.GOV.

Medical summaries or reports of the photographs, X-rays and relevant medical tests taken shall be sent to the county children and youth social service agency at the time the written report is sent, or within 48 hours after an electronic report is made under § 23.111(c)(2) (relating to suspected child abuse—mandated reporting requirements). or as soon thereafter as possible. The county children and youth social service agency shall have access to actual photographs or duplicates and X-rays and may obtain them or duplicates of them upon request. Medical summaries or reports of the photographs, X-rays and relevant medical tests shall be made available to law enforcement officials in the course of investigating cases under 23 Pa.C.S. § 6340(a)(9) or (10) (relating to release of information in confidential reports).

For the purpose of any civil or criminal proceeding, the good faith of the optometrist shall be presumed.

(b) The Board will uphold the same good faith presumption in any disciplinary proceeding that might result by reason of an optometrist's actions [in participating in good faith in the making of a report, cooperating with an investigation, testifying in a proceeding arising out of an instance of suspected child abuse or the taking of photographs] under §§ 23.211—23.113 (relating to suspected child abuse—mandated reporting requirements: photographs, medical tests and X-rays of child subject to report: and suspected death as a result of child abuse—mandated reporting requirement).

In accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 6311.1, privileged communications between a mandated reporter and a patient does not apply to a situation involving child abuse and does not relieve the mandated reporter of the duty to make a report of suspected child abuse.

§ 23.116. Noncompliance.

(ii) The child abuse constitutes a felony of the first degree or higher.

(iii) The mandated reporter has direct knowledge of the nature of the abuse.

(3) If the willful failure to report continues while the mandated reporter knows or has reasonable cause to suspect a child is being subjected to child abuse by the same individual, or while the mandated reporter knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that the same individual continues to have direct contact with children through the individual's employment, program activity or service, the mandated reporter commits a felony of the third degree, except that if the child abuse constitutes a felony of the first degree or higher, the mandated reporter commits a felony of the second degree.

(4) A mandated reporter who, at the time of sentencing for an offense under 23 Pa.C.S. § 6319, has been convicted of a prior offense under 23 Pa.C.S. § 6319, commits a felony of the third degree, except that if the child abuse constitutes a felony of the first degree or higher, the penalty for the second or subsequent offense is a felony of the second degree.

§ 23.117. Child abuse recognition and reporting—mandatory training requirement.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c), individuals applying to the Board for an initial license shall have completed at least 3 hours of training in child abuse recognition and reporting requirements which has been approved by the Department of Human Services and the Bureau, as set forth in § 23.118 (relating to child abuse recognition and reporter course approval process). The applicant shall certify on the application that the applicant has either completed the required training or has been granted an exemption under subsection (c). The Board will not issue a license unless the Bureau has received an electronic report from an approved course provider documenting the attendance or participation by the applicant or the applicant has obtained an exemption under subsection (c).

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), licensees seeking renewal of a license issued by the Board shall complete, as a condition of biennial renewal of the license, at least 2 hours of approved continuing education in child abuse recognition and reporting, as a portion of the total continuing education required for biennial license renewal or reactivation set forth in § 23.82 (relating to credit hour requirements). For credit to be granted, the continuing education course or program must be approved by the Bureau, in consultation with the Department of Human Services, as set forth in § 23.118. The Board will not renew a license unless the Bureau has received an electronic report from an approved course provider documenting the attendance or participation by the licensee in an approved course within the applicable biennial renewal period or the licensee has obtained an exemption under subsection (c). If a licensee also holds a license issued by another licensing board within the Bureau that requires mandatory training in child abuse recognition and reporting, credit for completion of an approved course will be applied to both licenses.

(c) An applicant or licensee may apply in writing for an exemption from the training/continuing education requirements set forth in subsections (a) and (b) provided the applicant or licensee meets one of the following:

- (1) The applicant or licensee submits documentation demonstrating that:

  - (ii) The training was approved by the Department of Human Services.

(iii) The amount of training received equals or exceeds the amount of training or continuing education required under subsection (a) or (b), as applicable.

(iv) For purposes of licensure renewal, the training must have been completed during the relevant biennial renewal period.

(3) The applicant or licensee submits documentation acceptable to the Board demonstrating why the applicant or licensee should not be subject to the training or continuing education requirement. The Board will not grant an exemption based solely upon proof that children are not a part of the applicant's or licensee's practice. Each request for an exemption under this paragraph will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The Board may grant an exemption if it finds that completion of the training or continuing education requirement is duplicative or unnecessary under the circumstances.

(d) Exemptions granted under subsection (c) are applicable only for the biennial renewal period for which the exemption is requested. If an exemption is granted, the Board will issue or renew the license, as applicable. If an exemption is denied, the Board will email the applicant or licensee a discrepancy notice notifying them of the need to either complete an approved course or, if warranted, to submit additional documentation in support of their request for exemption.
