(7) Briefly explain the regulation in clear and nontechnical language. (100 words or less) The Commission's regulations have not undergone revisions in several decades. This rulemaking (1) removes and adjusts outdated provisions pertaining to Statements of Financial Interests (SFIs) that are no longer utilized, are unclear, or that are superfluous to the statutory requirements in the Public Official and Employee Ethics Act (Ethics Act), 65 Pa.C.S. §1101 et seq., (2) revises section 15.2(a) to be consistent with the Ethics Act, (3) adds electronic mail as an appropriate means of filing and service, (4) updates statutory references to Purdon's to the codified version in Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, (5) removes the postal address and business hours of the Commission as these are no longer accurate, (6) clarifies the date of election and length of terms of the Commission's Chair and Vice Chair, and (7) makes several grammatical changes such as changing "employe" to the more commonly utilized "employee" and revising the terms “Chairman” and “Chairperson” to “Chair.”

(8) State the statutory authority for the regulation. Include specific statutory citation.

This rulemaking is authorized by the Public Official and Employee Ethics Act (Ethics Act), 65 Pa.C.S. § 1107(1), which expressly authorizes the Commission to prescribe and publish rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the Ethics Act.

(9) Is the regulation mandated by any federal or state law or court order, or federal regulation? Are there any relevant state or federal court decisions? If yes, cite the specific law, case or regulation as well as, any deadlines for action.

There are no applicable federal or state statutes, regulations or court decisions that mandate the adoption of this rulemaking.

(10) State why the regulation is needed. Explain the compelling public interest that justifies the regulation. Describe who will benefit from the regulation. Quantify the benefits as completely as possible and approximate the number of people who will benefit.

Section 1101.1(a) of the Ethics Act declares that “clear guidelines are needed in order to guide public officials and employees in their actions. Thus, the General Assembly by this chapter intends to define as clearly as possible those areas which represent conflict with the public trust.” 65 Pa.C.S. § 1101.1(a). Therefore, the Commission considers it important to resolve any ambiguity between the Ethics Act and the Commission’s regulations.

The Commission’s regulations have not undergone a wholesale review since they were promulgated in 1993. Many changes have been made in the manner in which the Commission conducts business since that time. In order to help guide the regulated community and to assist the Commission in its ability to regulate the ethical conduct of those subject to the Ethics Act, certain technical changes are necessary. This rulemaking would remedy inconsistencies between the Ethics Act and the Commission’s regulations, modernize the Commission’s practices by allowing for electronic mail as an acceptable means for filing and service of documents, and provide clarity to the Commissioners and those subject to the Ethics Act and the regulations of the Commission.

Specifically, this rulemaking would benefit the regulated community by remedying inconsistencies between the Ethics Act and the Commission’s regulations, thus lessening the chance of confusion and misunderstanding and removing superfluous SFI reporting requirements that are not required by the Ethics Act.

The rulemaking also would modernize the Commission's practices by adding electronic mail as an acceptable means of filing and service of documents, making it easier for individuals to file their SFIs and other documents with the Commission. At the time the regulations were promulgated, email was not a widely-used means of filing documents, and allowing email filing through this rulemaking would bring the Commission's practices up to date with current technology. These regulatory changes also would utilize more modern terminology.

Further, the rulemaking would provide clarity for the general public and those subject to the Commission's regulations. It would correct statutory references, remove the Commission's incorrect address and business hours, and clarify the timing of the elections of Commission officers, and the length of service for those officers. Accordingly, this rulemaking benefits the Commission, the regulated community and the general public.

(11) Are there any provisions that are more stringent than federal standards? If yes, identify the specific provisions and the compelling Pennsylvania interest that demands stronger regulations.

There are no federal standards applicable to the subject matter of the rulemaking.

(12) How does this regulation compare with those of the other states? How will this affect Pennsylvania's ability to compete with other states?

Not applicable.

(13) Will the regulation affect any other regulations of the promulgating agency or other state agencies? If yes, explain and provide specific citations.

No. This rulemaking will not affect any other regulations of the Commission or other state agencies.

(14) Describe the communications with and solicitation of input from the public, any advisory council/group, small businesses and groups representing small businesses in the development and drafting of the regulation. List the specific persons and/or groups who were involved. (“Small business” is defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012.)

Public notice of the intention to revise the regulations under the procedures set forth in sections 201 and 202 of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. §§ 1201 and 1202, was omitted as authorized under section 204(3) of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. § 1204(3). Public comment is unnecessary under the circumstances because this rulemaking consists of technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001.

(15) Identify the types and number of persons, businesses, small businesses (as defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012) and organizations which will be affected by the regulation. How are they affected?

Public officials, public employees, candidates, solicitors, nominees, Commissioners of the State Ethics Commission, and third parties who have involvement with the foregoing individuals. The effect on these persons will be minimal, if at all, because this rulemaking consists of technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001, thus lessening the chance of confusion and misunderstanding.

(16) List the persons, groups or entities, including small businesses, that will be required to comply with the regulation. Approximate the number that will be required to comply.

Public officials, public employees, candidates, solicitors, nominees, Commissioners of the State Ethics Commission, and any other individual subject to the Ethics Act.

(17) Identify the financial, economic and social impact of the regulation on individuals, small businesses, businesses and labor communities and other public and private organizations. Evaluate the benefits expected as a result of the regulation.

There will be no financial, economic or social impact of this rulemaking on individuals, small businesses, businesses and labor communities and other public and private organizations.

(18) Explain how the benefits of the regulation outweigh any cost and adverse effects.

There are no costs or adverse effects associated with this rulemaking, only benefits. These are technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001. As such, this rulemaking benefits both the Commission, the regulated community and the general public with no identifiable costs or adverse effects.

(19) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the regulated community associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required. Explain how the dollar estimates were derived.

The rulemaking does not impose any additional legal, accounting or consulting procedures on the regulated community.

(20) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the local governments associated with compliance, including any legal, accounting or consulting procedures which may be required. Explain how the dollar estimates were derived.

The rulemaking does not impose any additional legal, accounting or consulting procedures on local governments.

(21) Provide a specific estimate of the costs and/or savings to the state government associated with the implementation of the regulation, including any legal, accounting, or consulting procedures which may be required. Explain how the dollar estimates were derived.

The rulemaking does not impose any additional legal, accounting or consulting procedures on state government.

(22) For each of the groups and entities identified in items (19)-(21) above, submit a statement of legal, accounting or consulting procedures and additional reporting, recordkeeping or other paperwork, including copies of forms or reports, which will be required for implementation of the regulation and an explanation of measures which have been taken to minimize these requirements.

The rulemaking does not impose any additional legal, accounting or consulting procedures or any additional reporting, recordkeeping or other paperwork.

(22a) Are forms required for implementation of the regulation?

No. There are no forms required for implementation of this rulemaking.

(22b) If forms are required for implementation of the regulation, attach copies of the forms here. If your agency uses electronic forms, provide links to each form or a detailed description of the information required to be reported. Failure to attach forms, provide links, or provide a detailed description of the information to be reported will constitute a faulty delivery of the regulation.

Not applicable.

(23) In the table below, provide an estimate of the fiscal savings and costs associated with implementation and compliance for the regulated community, local government, and state government for the current year and five subsequent years.

	Current FY Year	FY +1 Year	FY +2 Year	FY +3 Year	FY +4 Year	FY +5 Year

(23a) Provide the past three year expenditure history for programs affected by the regulation.

State Ethics Commission	$2,932,00.00	$3,015,000.00	$3,197,000.00	$3,369,000.00

(24) For any regulation that may have an adverse impact on small businesses (as defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012), provide an economic impact statement that includes the following:

- (a) An identification and estimate of the number of small businesses subject to the regulation.
- (b) The projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative costs required for compliance with the proposed regulation, including the type of professional skills necessary for preparation of the report or record.
- (c) A statement of probable effect on impacted small businesses.
- (d) A description of any less intrusive or less costly alternative methods of achieving the purpose of the proposed regulation.

There is no small business impact. These are technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001. In that the rulemaking impacts public officials, public employees, candidates, solicitors, nominees, and Commissioners of the State Ethics Commission, there are no direct costs associated with this rulemaking that would be passed on to employers.

(25) List any special provisions which have been developed to meet the particular needs of affected groups or persons including, but not limited to, minorities, the elderly, small businesses, and farmers.

No groups with particular needs have been identified.

(26) Include a description of any alternative regulatory provisions which have been considered and rejected and a statement that the least burdensome acceptable alternative has been selected.

Given that these are technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001, no alternatives have been considered as the revisions in this rulemaking are not burdensome.

(27) In conducting a regulatory flexibility analysis, explain whether regulatory methods were considered that will minimize any adverse impact on small businesses (as defined in Section 3 of the Regulatory Review Act, Act 76 of 2012), including:

- a) The establishment of less stringent compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;
- b) The establishment of less stringent schedules or deadlines for compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;
- c) The consolidation or simplification of compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses;
- d) The establishment of performance standards for small businesses to replace design or operational standards required in the regulation; and
- e) The exemption of small businesses from all or any part of the requirements contained in the regulation.

Not applicable in that there is no small business impact.

(28) If data is the basis for this regulation, please provide a description of the data, explain in detail how the data was obtained, and how it meets the acceptability standard for empirical, replicable and testable data that is supported by documentation, statistics, reports, studies or research. Please submit data or supporting materials with the regulatory package. If the material exceeds 50 pages, please provide it in a searchable electronic format or provide a list of citations and internet links that, where possible, can be accessed in a searchable format in lieu of the actual material. If other data was considered but not used, please explain why that data was determined not to be acceptable.

Not applicable.

(29) Include a schedule for review of the regulation including:

- | | |
|---|---|
| A. The length of the public comment period: | Not applicable |
| B. The date or dates on which any public meetings or hearings will be held: | Not applicable |

The State Ethics Commission proposes to amend Chapters 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23 and 25, §§ 11.1, 11.3, 13.1—13.3, 13.5, 15.1—15.3, 17.1, 17.4, 17.6, 17.7, 19.1, 19.3, 19.4, 21.4—21.6, 21.21, 21.23, 21.24, 21.26, 21.29, 23.1, 23.3, 23.4, 23.7, 23.22, 23.23, 25.2, to read as set forth in Annex A.

Effective Date

The final-omitted rulemaking will be effective upon final publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin.

Statutory Authority

The State Ethics Commission issues this final-omitted rulemaking under the authority provided by section 1107(1) of the Public Official and Employee Ethics Act (Ethics Act), 65 Pa.C.S. § 1107(1), which provides the Commission with the general authority to establish rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the Ethics Act and section 204(3) of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. § 1204(3), which authorizes final-omitted rulemaking when public comment is unnecessary.

Omission of Proposed Rulemaking

Public notice of the intention to revise the regulations under the procedures set forth in sections 201 and 202 of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. §§ 1201 and 1202, was omitted as authorized under section 204(3) of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. § 1204(3). Public comment is unnecessary under the circumstances because this rulemaking consists of technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001.

Purpose and Background

Section 1101.1(a) of the Ethics Act declares that “clear guidelines are needed in order to guide public officials and employees in their actions. Thus, the General Assembly by this chapter intends to define as clearly as possible those areas which represent conflict with the public trust.” 65 Pa.C.S. § 1101.1(a). Therefore, the Commission considers it important to resolve any ambiguity between the Ethics Act and the Commission’s regulations.

The Commission’s regulations have not undergone a wholesale review since they were promulgated in 1993. Many changes have been made in the manner in which the Commission conducts business since that time. In order to help guide the regulated community and to assist the Commission in its ability to regulate the ethical conduct of those subject to the Ethics Act, certain technical changes are necessary. This rulemaking would remedy inconsistencies between the Ethics Act and the Commission’s regulations, modernize the Commission’s practices by allowing for electronic mail as an acceptable means for filing and service of documents, and provide clarity to the Commissioners and those subject to the Ethics Act and the regulations of the Commission.

Specifically, this rulemaking would benefit the regulated community by remedying inconsistencies between the Ethics Act and the Commission’s regulations, thus lessening the chance of confusion and misunderstanding and removing superfluous SFI reporting requirements that are not required by the Ethics Act.

The rulemaking also would modernize the Commission’s practices by adding electronic mail as an acceptable means of filing and service of documents, making it easier for individuals to file their SFIs and other documents with the Commission. At the time the regulations were promulgated, email was not a widely-used means of filing documents, and allowing email filing through this rulemaking would bring the Commission’s practices up to date with current technology. These regulatory changes also would utilize more modern terminology.

Further, the rulemaking would provide clarity for the general public and those subject to the Commission’s regulations. It would correct statutory references, remove the Commission’s incorrect address and business hours, and clarify the timing of the elections of Commission officers, and the length of service for those officers. Accordingly, this rulemaking benefits the Commission, the regulated community and the general public.

Description of Proposed Regulations

This rulemaking seeks to amend various sections of the regulations for clarity, consistency and modernization.

Clarity

This rulemaking amends sections 11.1, 13.1, 13.3, 23.4, 23.22, and 25.2 to correct the statutory references to Purdon’s to the codified version in Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes.

Although section 21.5(l) contains an incorrect statutory reference, this section is being reserved to address in a future proposed rulemaking because the referenced statutory subsection, to the extent it prohibits public disclosure of Ethics Act complaint filings, has been permanently enjoined as an unconstitutional restraint on free speech. See, Stilp v. Contino, 629 F.Supp.2d 449 (M.D. Pa. 2009), affirmed and remanded 613 F.3d 405 (3rd Cir. Pa. 2010), on remand 743 F.Supp.2d 460 (M.D. Pa. 2010).

Additionally, section 19.1 (relating to forms and filing) removes the postal address of the State Ethics Commission as it is no longer accurate or necessary, while section 19.4 removes the business hours of the Commission for the identical reason. Section 19.4 also adds clarification to the timeframe in which SFIs shall be kept on file by specifying that the forms shall be maintained for 5 years after the governmental body receives the SFIs. This rulemaking also removes the phrase “For cases to which the act applies” from section 21.21 because it is unnecessary given that the Commission’s jurisdiction obviously is limited to those cases to which the Ethics Act is applicable.

For further clarification, this rulemaking modifies section 23.7 (relating to election of chair and vice chair) to clarify the date of election and the length of the terms of the Commission’s Chair and Vice Chair. Section 21.23 (relating to scope of hearing) reorganizes the types of hearings that may be conducted by the Commission to better reflect the order of complexity of hearings. Section 21.24 of this rulemaking revises the term “Insure” to “Ensure” to accurately characterize that the Hearing Officer makes certain that various duties occur, rather than protects against loss or damage which is the common definition of “insure.”

Consistency

Also proposed are numerous technical changes to make the regulations consistent with the Ethics Act. This rulemaking updates section 13.2(k) to add the word “working” to the time limitation in which the Chief Counsel shall issue a written advice to the requester. This change makes the timeframe consistent with the time period prescribed earlier in the same subparagraph. In Section 15.2 of this rulemaking, the word “for” is replaced with “of” to be consistent with the requirements of the Ethics Act and to eliminate confusion as to what years an individual is required to file an SFI. The rulemaking at section 15.3 corrects the description of local officials to include the term “level” or “public” to be consistent with the Ethics Act and other subparagraphs in section 15.3 which refer to “local level public officials.”

This rulemaking also amends section 17.7 to state that a “person required to file a Statement of Financial Interests” rather than delineating the specific individuals required to file, such as public officials and public employees, because this section is inconsistent with the Ethics Act and other sections of the regulations insofar as it failed to include a number of individuals required to file an SFI. A similar change in terminology is included in section 19.1 of this rulemaking.

The word “deficient” is added to section 19.3 of this rulemaking to reflect that an SFI may be delinquent or deficient, which is consistent with the Ethics Act and other provisions of the regulations.

Section 21.5 replaces the phrase “subject of the investigation” with the word “respondent” as this is a more accurate description of the individual responding to a findings report, and it also makes this section consistent with the language of the Ethics Act. To be consistent with the other provisions of the regulations, the term “Commission” is capitalized in section 21.6. Section 21.24 changes the word “presiding” officer to “hearing” officer to be consistent with the Ethics Act and other provisions of the regulations.

Modernization

To further the goal of modernization, this rulemaking updates the terms “Filed” and “Service” to include electronic mail as an appropriate means of filing and serving documents with the Commission in an effort to update the Commission’s practices with today’s technology. Section 11.3 of the rulemaking (relating to statute of limitations) removes the grandfather clause from the regulations because it is obsolete. Sections 11.1, 21.5, 21.21, 21.26, 23.1, 23.3, and 23.7 revise the terms “Chairperson” and “Vice Chairperson” to “Chair” and “Vice Chair” while sections 11.1, 15.1, 15.2, 17.1, 17.6, 21.4, and 23.23 update the term “employee” to the more commonly utilized “employee.” Sections 11.1, 13.1, 13.2, and 21.29 revise the term ”Requestor” to the common vernacular “Requester” and update the term “chief counsel” to begin with capital letters. Section 13.5 (relating to public access) contains revisions to the various names of associations and professional groups to reflect their current proper names.

Section 17.1 of the rulemaking relating to SFIs removes the requirement that a person required to file an SFI include his county of reference as this is superfluous and not required by the Ethics Act, and renumbers the subparagraphs to reflect this deletion. Section 17.4 (relating to income) is amended to correct a simple grammatical error. Section 19.1 is amended to specifically authorize electronic filing as an appropriate means by which to file an SFI. It also removes the requirement that an individual who files an SFI by facsimile shall also provide to the Commission the signed original document via regular mail.

Paperwork Requirements

The final-omitted rulemaking will not result in an increase in paperwork for the Commission or any individuals or entities.

Fiscal Impact

The final-omitted rulemaking will not result in any fiscal impact to the Commonwealth, its political subdivisions or the general public.

Sunset Date

The Commission continuously monitors the effectiveness of its regulations. Therefore, no sunset date has been assigned.

Public Comment

Public notice of the intention to revise the regulations under the procedures set forth in sections 201 and 202 of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. §§ 1201 and 1202, was omitted as authorized under section 204(3) of the Commonwealth Documents Law, 45 P.S. § 1204(3). Public comment is unnecessary under the circumstances because this rulemaking consists of technical revisions necessary for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization to regulations that have not been updated since 2001.

Regulatory Review

Under section 5.1(c) of the Regulatory Review Act, 71 P.S. § 745.5a(c), on January 24, 2024, the State Ethics Commission submitted a copy of the final-omitted rulemaking and a copy of the Regulatory Analysis Form to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission (IRRC) and the Chairpersons of the House Judiciary Committee and the Senate Committee on State Government. § 23.22. Prohibited activities.

- (a) A Commissioner may not be employed by the Commonwealth or a political subdivision of the Commonwealth in a capacity with or without compensation, including holding another public office or position.

(b) A Commissioner may not hold an office in a political party during his tenure or for 1 year prior to his appointment to the Commission, nor may a member hold office in a political committee during his tenure.

(c) A Commissioner, a spouse of a Commissioner or a member of a Commissioner's immediate family residing in the Commissioner's household may not actively participate in or contribute to a political campaign.

(1) Active participation in a campaign includes attempting to assist a candidate or nominee to obtain public office, soliciting support or information, distributing campaign materials or advertisements, fundraising, publicly supporting a candidate, participating in an organized effort for the purpose of helping a candidate or nominee or attending a fundraiser or dinner on behalf of a candidate.

(2) This section does not abridge the right of a Commissioner to vote or attend a debate, speech or similar event that is held primarily for the purpose of communicating a candidate's platform or position on issues of public concern.

(d) A Commissioner may not directly or indirectly attempt to influence a decision by a governmental body, other than a court of law or as a representative of the Commission on a matter within the jurisdiction of the Commission.

(e) If a Commissioner violates section 1106(d) of the act (65 Pa.C.S. § [4]1106(d)), a majority of the Commission may declare the seat vacant.

(1) A motion to remove a Commissioner will be made by a Commission member.

(2) A Commissioner may not be removed prior to notice and an opportunity to be heard.

§ 23.23. Limitations on voting/recusal.

(a) A Commissioner is required to recuse himself from a matter which involves persons with whom the Commissioner has a direct involvement, personally or financially.

(1) A Commissioner is deemed to have a direct personal involvement with members of his immediate family as defined in the act, in-laws and close friends.

(2) A Commissioner has a direct financial involvement with an individual who owns a part of or is employed by a business with which the Commissioner is associated within the 2 years prior to the Commission's review of a matter in question if the financial involvement was of more than a de minimis nature.

(3) If a Commissioner recuses himself from a matter he will:

(i) Remove himself from that segment of the Commission meeting wherein the matter is to be discussed and avoid casual discussion of the matter with other Commissioners.

(ii) Receive no further information from the Commission or the Commission staff regarding the matter.

(iii) Receive copies of minutes of the meeting containing deletions so as to not disclose the matter to the Commissioner.

(b) A Commissioner who has a potential conflict not addressed in subsection (a) will take one of the following courses of action:

(1) Disclose the matter to the Commission and seek its guidance as to whether it would be proper to participate and vote in a matter before the Commission.

(2) Disclose to the parties his potential conflict and solicit their express agreement that he may continue in his official capacity, subject to the approval of the Commission.

(3) Recuse himself.

(c) A Commissioner who recuses himself or is recused by the Commission or at the suggestion of one of the parties is subject to subsection (a)(3).

(d) A Commissioner's participation involving parties with whom the Commissioner has had substantial prior contact may present a conflict under subsection (b) depending on the totality of the circumstances. Circumstances to be considered include whether the matter involves one or more of the following:

(1) A relative of the Commissioner.

(2) A former employer or employee.

(3) A person or business with which a Commissioner has or had financial dealings of more than a de minimis nature within the 2 years prior to the Commissioner's review of the matter in question.

(8) A debtor or creditor of the Commissioner.

(e) A Commissioner recused from a matter shall direct that the individual recording the minutes at the meeting enter into the minutes the recusal and the reasons therefor.

(f) If the Commission cannot achieve a quorum because recusals reduce the number of Commissioners available to vote, the matter in question will be deferred until a meeting at which a quorum may be achieved.

CHAPTER 25. WRONGFUL USE OF THE ACT

Sec.

25.1. Wrongful use of the act.

25.2. Initiation of proceedings.

25.3. Disposition.

25.4. Appeal of determination.

§ 25.1. Wrongful use of the act.

Wrongful use of the act is established by one or more of the following elements:

- (1) The filing of a frivolous complaint which is a complaint filed in a grossly negligent manner without basis in law or fact.
- (2) The filing of a complaint without probable cause, primarily for a purpose other than reporting a violation of the act.
- (3) Disclosing publicly or causing to be publicly disclosed the fact that an individual is the subject of a complaint or Commission investigation.

§ 25.2. Initiation of proceedings.

(a) The Commission may initiate proceedings to determine whether there has been a wrongful use of the act through the filing of a notification by a public official/public employee as provided for in section 1108\(l\) of the act (65 Pa.C.S. § [\[4\]1108\(l\)](#)), which notification shall contain the following:

- (1) A reference identifying the complaint/investigation involved.
 - (2) A detailed explanation as to the reasons, information, facts or evidence establishing the elements of wrongful use of act as outlined in § 25.1 (relating to wrongful use of the act).
 - (3) If applicable, identification of the person publicly disclosing the existence of Commission proceedings and the specific nature of the disclosure.
 - (4) Additional information necessary to the resolution of the matter.
- (b) Failure to provide information as outlined in this section will be cause for dismissal of the notification.

§ 25.3. Disposition.

(a) Pursuant to a notification containing the requisite information outlined in § 25.2 (relating to initiation of proceedings), the Commission will initiate proceedings by conducting an investigation to determine whether there has been a wrongful use of act.

- (b) The investigation will be conducted in a confidential manner.
- (c) The investigation may incorporate information which the Commission has already obtained.

(1) If the Commission determines a complaint has been filed in violation of the act, it will release the name and address of the complainant to the respondent after giving the complainant notice and an opportunity to be heard on the issue of whether the complainant wrongfully used the act.

(2) If the Commission determines that a complaint was proper, it will so notify the respondent who may appeal that determination and the Commission will schedule a hearing.

(d) Upon completion of the investigation, the Commission will make a preliminary determination as to wrongful use of the act. The Commission will notify the complainant and subject of the preliminary determination.

§ 25.4. Appeal of determination.

(a) Both the complainant and the subject have standing and either may appeal the preliminary determination to the Commission.

(1) Any appeal shall be filed with the Commission within 30 days of service of the preliminary determination.

(2) If there is no timely appeal filed, the Commission's initial determination will become absolute and will become the final determination of the Commission in the matter as to wrongful use of the act.

(b) The issuance of Orders to Show Cause is governed by the following:

(1) If a subject appeals, the Commission will issue an Order to Show Cause requiring the respondent to set forth reasons why the rule should not be made absolute as to a finding of no wrongful use of the act. The answer to the rule shall contain specific factual averments which establish a basis for believing the act was wrongfully used. One or more of the following are inadequate to establish wrongful use:

- (i) Dismissal of the complaint.
- (ii) Dismissal for lack of probable cause.
- (iii) Dismissal on jurisdictional grounds.

(2) The Commission will schedule a hearing for the subject's appeal at which the subject shall bear the burden of proving wrongful use of the act by clear and convincing evidence. The investigative staff of the Commission will present the case opposing the subject's appeal.

(c) If the complainant appeals, the Commission will issue a Rule to Show Cause requiring the complainant to file an answer to the averments in the Rule as to why the Rule should not be made absolute as to a finding of wrongful use of the act. The Commission will schedule a hearing for the complainant's appeal. The investigative staff of the Commission will present the Commission's case and will have the burden of proving wrongful use of the act by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) If the Commission makes a final determination that the act has been wrongfully used, it will release to the subject the name and address of the complainant solely for the purpose of initiating an action for wrongful use of the act. The complainant's identity will not otherwise be publicly released.

(e) If the Commission makes a final determination that the act was not wrongfully used, it will issue a final determination setting forth the reasons and evidence for its finding.

(f) The procedures of §§ 21.21—21.29 will apply to the hearing to the extent applicable.

Re: Final-Omitted Regulation No. 63-08

Dear Executive Director Sumner:

Please find enclosed a copy of the Final-Form Regulation Packet for the State Ethics Commission's Final-Omitted Regulation No. 63-08. The Final-Form Regulation Packet includes the following:

1. Regulatory Analysis Form;
2. Fiscal Note;
3. Face Sheet;
4. Preamble;
5. Annex A – Final-Form Regulation; and
6. Transmittal Sheet with Receipt Confirmations.

This final-omitted rulemaking proposes to amend Chapters 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23 and 25 of Title 51 of the Pennsylvania Code to provide for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization. The State Ethics Commission's regulations have not undergone a wholesale review since they were promulgated in 1993. Many changes have been made in the manner in which the State Ethics Commission conducts business since that time. In order to help guide the regulated community and to assist the State Ethics Commission in its ability to regulate the conduct of those subject to the Ethics Act, certain technical changes are necessary. This final-omitted rulemaking would remedy inconsistencies between the Ethics Act and the State Ethics Commission's regulations, provide clarity to the Commissioners and those subject to the Ethics Act and the regulations, and modernize the State Ethics Commission's practices by allowing for electronic mail as an acceptable means for filing and service of documents.

Accordingly, the State Ethics Commission is submitting the final-omitted regulations to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission for review pursuant to the provisions of the Regulatory Review Act.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I am available to discuss this final-form rulemaking package with you and your staff at your convenience.

Respectfully,

Dear Chief Deputy Elliott:

Please find attached a copy of the Final-Form Regulation Packet for the State Ethics Commission's Final-Omitted Regulation No. 63-08. The Final-Form Regulation Packet includes the following:

1. Regulatory Analysis Form;
2. Fiscal Note;
3. Face Sheet;
4. Preamble; and
5. Annex A – Final-Form Regulation.

This final-omitted rulemaking proposes to amend Chapters 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23 and 25 of Title 51 of the Pennsylvania Code to provide for statutory consistency, clarity and modernization. The State Ethics Commission's regulations have not undergone a wholesale review since they were promulgated in 1993. Many changes have been made in the manner in which the State Ethics Commission conducts business since that time. In order to help guide the regulated community and to assist the State Ethics Commission in its ability to regulate the conduct of those subject to the Ethics Act, certain technical changes are necessary. This final-omitted rulemaking would remedy inconsistencies between the Ethics Act and the State Ethics Commission's regulations, provide clarity to the Commissioners and those subject to the Ethics Act and the regulations, and modernize the State Ethics Commission's practices by allowing for electronic mail as an acceptable means for filing and service of documents. Accordingly, the State Ethics Commission will be submitting this final-omitted regulation to the Independent Regulatory Review Commission for review pursuant to the provisions of the Regulatory Review Act.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I am available to discuss this final-form rulemaking package with you and your staff at your convenience.

In order to satisfy the notice requirements of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission, please confirm via email receipt of this rulemaking package.

Sincerely,

Bridget K. Guilfoyle | Chief Counsel
